5 Routed By Blaze; Garage, Cars Burned

An early morning fire today damaged a San Rafael home, destroyed an attached garage and two cars and routed a family of five.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Thelen Jr. of 199 Mountain View avenue grabbed their three children to safety. No one was hurt.

Thelen, an attorney with the San Francisco firm of Thelen, Marrin, Johnson and Bridges, estimated damage to the garage and home at more than $10,000. The family's station wagon and 1954 sedan were destroyed.

Thelen said he and his wife, Phyllis, were aroused about 6:15 a.m. by noise and smoke. They dashed into the bedroom immediately above the burning garage and led Nancy, 5, and Jane 4, to a neighbor's home for safety. Max Thelen III, age 1, also was saved.

Mrs. Thelen and neighbors called the San Rafael Fire Department about 6:20 a.m. Three fire trucks and 13 men saved the house. Most of the garage was destroyed.

The Thelens have been living at the home since last June. Cause of the fire was being investigated by Deputy Fire Chief Vance Trivett and insurance investigators.

Fugitive Badman Returned To Prison, Riddled By Bullets

A 90-pound badman who ranged from Santa Clara County all the way to Mexico lay in serious condition in San Quentin Prison's hospital today, paralyzed from the waist down from bullet wounds in the spine and legs.

Benjamin Escobar, 27, was returned to the prison last night from Santa Clara County hospital.

He was originally admitted to the prison on April 27, 1956 to serve a six-month-to-10-year term for receiving stolen goods. After three months, he was transferred to the state prison at Soledad.

Escobar fled Soledad in February, 1957, with a companion, Leonardo Diaz, and returned to San Jose to begin a spree of armed robberies.

FLEES SOLEDAD

He was apprehended three months later and again sent to San Quentin. While at the Monterey County Jail awaiting trial for escape from Soledad, Escobar ran away again. That was on June 10, 1957.

He fled over the Mexican border and was not heard from again until recently. According to Inspector Harvey H. Hutchings of the Santa Clara sheriff's office, Escobar shot an attorney and police officer while escaping from a prison in Mexico several months ago.

A month ago, he was "riddled with bullets" in a gun battle in Mexico. One leg was practically shot off and his spine injured, according to reports. His mother apparently went to Mexico to care for him, Warden Fred R. Dickson of San Quentin said.

Escobar was returned to San Jose and on Christmas eve informed a priest that he wanted to give himself up, after spending the holidays with his family. Shortly after New

Gallinas Villagers Ired By Sewage Backup

By WILLIAM L. EARLE

Embattled residents of Descanso way in Gallinas Village are up in arms over a sewage backup problem they believe the county should have corrected long ago.

The trouble hit a new high (or low) this week when high tides and heavy winds jointly created a critical plumbing problem in a dozen homes along Descanso and other houses along Rosal way.

Irate mothers reported periodic backflow of sewage into bathtubs and toilets, with resultant overflowing onto floors. And just when the situation began easing off, it started raining again.

Perhaps more frustrating than the immediate problem was the knowledge that months may pass before corrective measures are taken.

Said one irate housewife: "This has been happening off and on for four years and nothing has been done about it. Everybody is passing the buck. The department of public works and department of sanitation keep telling us it'll be taken care of, but I'd like to know when!"

"Honestly, it's terrible!" said another. "We can't take a bath or shower in our house because all that stuff is backed up into the tub . . . And the worst of it is, you can't sell your house because nobody will have it."

Still another housewife cited the health problem created by the situation and expressed fears for her children.

"If anyone doesn't believe this," she added, "all they have to do is to come out here and we'll march them into our

Ike Urges Courtesy For Mikoyan

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, noting demonstrations against Anastas Mikoyan in this country, today called for courteous treatment of the Soviet visitor.

The White House made it clear that Eisenhower is disturbed by these demonstrations against the Soviet deputy premier, now touring the United States.

In Cleveland yesterday, Mikoyan was greeted by chanting, shouting, sign-waving demonstrators.

Protesting pickets also were on hand at Detroit when Mikoyan arrived there today.

Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, was asked at a news conference about the President's reaction to such demonstrations. Hagerty promptly pulled out a prepared statement.

Hagerty said:

"The President hopes that wherever he goes in this country, Mr. Mikoyan will be met with the courtesy Americans traditionally show visitors from abroad."

Boat Dumps Seaman Into Stormy Bay

A young merchant seaman from Sausalito, who went sailing in stormy Richardson Bay about 10 o'clock last night, was fished out by the Coast Guard an hour later after his boat flipped.

Erik P. Jorgensen, 30, of Gate 4, Marinship, hung on to his overturned boat until it drifted close to Tiburon, then yelled for help. Mrs. Helen E. Newman of 841 Tiburon boulevard heard the distress cries and called Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, who notified the Coast Guard.

A 38-foot Coast Guard boat took off from Fort Point in San Francisco with J. L. Dauster in charge. The crew fished Jorgensen out, then towed his 17-foot converted lifeboat back to Pier 4 in Sausalito.

Coast Guardsmen said they do not know exactly what Jorgensen was doing in the bay, "but it was a rough night to be out in a sailboat, especially with gale warnings up."

Sheriff's Deputy D. L. Greeson reported Jorgensen was cold and wet but unharmed. The merchant seaman was sailing a converted metal life boat when winds caught the sail and overturned his craft.

Legislative Review Of Budget Sought

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A constitutional amendment to give the Legislature power to review the entire state budget was introduced in the Assembly today.

The current Legislature can only review a third of the two-billion-dollar state budget because of appropriations set by formula in the constitution.

The amendment could not affect any budget until 1961. If it passes the Legislature, it would be put to the vote of the people in 1960.

New Tramway Plan Unfolded In Mill Valley

Vista-Dome Vehicles Being Considered For Excursion Schedules

A radically new proposal to revive the scenic attraction of tourist trips up Mt. Tamalpais was unfolded before the Mill Valley city council last night by Manuel Gomez, Mill Valley jeweler and property developer.

(A proposal by Charles Van Evera for a tramway to the top of the mountain has been brewing more than a year but has been dormant recently.)

Gomez told the council that he plans to obtain permission from Marin Municipal Water District to utilize the right-of-way of the sightseeing railroad which climbed the mountain from Mill Valley in bygone years. Much of the right-of-way is in water district lands.

The railroad ceased operations in 1931, but the roadbed is in excellent condition and readily usable, Gomez reported.

SPECIAL VEHICLES

Gomez announced he plans to use vista-dome vehicles for tourist excursions. He stressed they would not be conventional buses. He said they would possibly be "vehicles of two or more articulated units, not running on tracks."

When the plan becomes fully operative, it could represent an investment of more than $500,000 and would include construction of a chateau at the summit, on the site of the former Mt. Tamalpais tavern, Gomez declared.

"My plan is to develop something which will attract people to this area and aid the community," he told the council. "I plan to use the old right-of-way, not only to the peak but also into Muir Woods, just as the old railroad operated."

STATIONS PLANNED

His appearance at the city council meeting was to get council reaction to a proposal for construction of "a beautiful station and parking area somewhere in the marshlands."

Gomez said his tentative plan was to start operation from this station, pass through Lytton Square, up Blithedale Canyon and the mountain.

Although councilmen were reluctant to make specific commitments, they indicated they would be willing to entertain any project which would be in the best interests of the community.

Gomez said his next step is to obtain water district permission to use the right-of-way.

NEW STORM BEARS DOWN ON BAY AREA

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The second major storm of the week moved southward over Northern California today, driven by gale force winds bringing general rains and snow in the mountains.

The first wave of the new storm came as far south as northern Marin County late yesterday.

The Weather Bureau said the second wave was moving southward this morning with heavy rains in the Ukiah area and wind gusts up to 71 miles per hour at Blunt's Reef. Intermittent heavy rain and south winds with gusts of 25 to 40 m.p.h. were forecast for the Bay Area. The chance of rain tonight and tomorrow is 90 per cent, the bureau predicted.

Snow is expected in the mountains as far south as Yosemite tonight.

Low Bid On Hill School Tops Estimate

Even the lowest of nine bids for construction of Hill School additions proved 9 per cent above the state's allowable estimate, Novato School Board trustees discovered last night. Nevertheless, an attempt will be made to get state approval of the low bid, they decided.

The Ed Eoff Construction Co.'s low bid of $195,987 was accepted by the trustees, contingent on state Allocations Board approval. The state's estimate was $178,000.

RANGE OF BIDS

Bids opened last night ranged to a high of $217,580. They included a base bid, plus a site development alternate bid.

Richard Banwell of John Lyon Reid and Partners, architects for the district, was instructed to present the board's request for reconsideration to the Allocations Board in Sacramento tomorrow. Trustees termed the state figure "unrealistic."

PROPOSED ADDITIONS

The proposed additions include a new music building, locker and shower room, arts and crafts building, conversion of two kindergarten rooms to science rooms and alteration of 17 classrooms.

Should the state refuse approval, said Supt. W. J. J. Smith, a review and alteration of the plans would be necessary before calling for bids again.

Nests In Chimney Spark Fire In Miller's Washington Home

Birds' nests in the chimney caused a roof fire that almost smoked the Clement W. Miller family out of their new home in Washington, D. C.

Marin's newly elected congressman and his wife and four young daughters moved into the old house at 2400 Tilden street, N.W., last Saturday.

On Monday, as they began to feel settled, they decided to light a fire in the fireplace. Unbeknownst to them, the chimney harbored birds' nests.

Apparently Sherman Adams, the President's former assistant who was the former tenant of the house, hadn't used the fireplace.

The ensuing blaze brought four fire trucks, numerous firemen tramped up and down the stairs with canvases and hoses trying to extinguish the roof fire.

News of the fire was received today by Mrs. Gregory West of Larkspur, Miller's secretary in Marin County. She said the fire was put out without too much damage.

"If only they had been bird-watchers they might have known there would be nests in the chimney and it wouldn't have happened," Mrs. West said.

24-Hour Patrol Planned

A hard-hitting "vice squad," for 24-hour county patrol, is being organized by Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos.

The new sheriff announced that six inspectors, now on day shift with weekends off, will be placed on 24-hour duty under Chief Criminal Deputy Ellis Seibert.

This is the first of several sweeping changes planned by the new sheriff.

THREE ON DAYS

Instead of six inspectors on duty from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., three will be on day shift, with the other three taking turns at night including weekends.

"We are starting a system which will provide the people 24-hour coverage," said Sheriff Mountanos. "We hope to hit and hit hard any type of vice or crime as soon as it occurs."

In the past, the inspectors were off at night and on weekends, with one of them "on call" with a county car at his home. Whenever crime occurred at night or weekends, a call had to be placed to the chief criminal deputy, who in turn woke up the "on-call" inspector.

CAUSED DELAY

This caused some delay, Mountanos said.

Inspectors under Chief Criminal Deputy Seibert include Mike Melovich, William Bradley, Carl Sears, Bowen Bridges and Guido Battaglia. Deputy Sheriff Richard Argento will also be acting as inspector.

Wearing plain clothes, they will patrol in unmarked cars. Undersheriff Eugene Meyer also will be on call to help the squad.

Sheriff Mountanos announced his men are available to all chiefs of police in the county requesting help.

Tam Gym, Ball Field Hit As District Disgrace

Tamalpais High School's leaky gymnasium and submerged baseball field are a disgrace to the district, trustees of Tamalpais High School District were told last night.

Two basketball players were injured in practice this week because they slipped and fell on the wet gym floor, charged E. V. Carlson of Mill Valley, one of three members of the Tam Boosters who complained to the trustees of conditions at Tam's athletic plant.

"You can see daylight through the ventilators," declared Carlson.

'SEA OF MUD'

Further, he said, there is no drinking water in the gym and no rest room facilities. And around it is such a "sea of mud" that "how the youngsters get in and out and still have their shoes on, I don't know."

The baseball field "is not completely submerged, but I doubt if you could find first base or third base," went on Carlson. The football field is soggy, with water running onto it from a ditch at one end, he continued. The field house is too small and has "one or two inches of water all around it." The tennis court is flooded.

Chairman Howard I. McGill of the board of trustees said "It's a laughing matter that an institution of this size" should not be able to take care of such matters, "but we just don't have the money in the bank."

He said maintenance was cut to the bone when voters rejected a 65-cent increase in the tax ceiling last May. The district is trying again for the increase next month.

'FIELD DISAPPEARS'

Trustee E. J. Thomas Jr. said: "We've spent a lot of money in the past 30 years on fill for that field . . . It just sinks down and disappears."

He was challenged by E. C. Buffalow of Sausalito, another member of the Tam Boosters, who demanded, "When was the last time the field was filled." Conferring among themselves, the four trustees present decided it was at least eight years.

"It's been in the neighborhood of 12 to 14 years since that baseball field had one foot of fill put on it," retorted Buffalow. "I think it's a detriment to the kids (and) a disgrace to the Tam High School board."

Not only water, but also sewage, is on the field, he declared, and "I don't think you'll have any boys playing baseball on that field this year."

"I wouldn't blame them a bit," said McGill.

Pres Cleveland of the Tam Boosters said the club was seeking donations of some fill dirt for the baseball field. Would that conflict with the district's master plan? he asked.

FREE FILL WELCOMED

He was assured any free fill would be welcomed, although Supt. Chester G. Carlisle warned that a small amount would merely be wasted.

Carlisle said the roof leaks in the Tam gym, along with others in the Tam administration building and in buildings at Sir

Havana In Tumult As Castro Arrives

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro entered Havana today to a tumultuous welcome by thousands who turned out to greet the hero of the Cuban revolution.

Two frigates in the harbor fired 21-gun salutes as Castro arrived from eastern Cuba. It was a week to the day since his movement overthrew the regime of Fulgencia Batista.

Solon Renews Fight Against Death Penalty

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan (D-Los Angeles) said today he once again will introduce a bill to abolish capital punishment and will try to get the support of Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

McMillan planned a conference with Brown later this week or early next week. He said he might introduce the bill in the Assembly next Monday.

The proposed McMillan bill will be outright abolition of capital punishment. On the Senate side, Sen. Fred Farr (D-Carmel) said he would introduce a measure which would call for a six-year moratorium on capital punishment.

McMillan was successful in the 1957 session in obtaining passage of a bill outlawing the death penalty except for certain offenses. In the Senate, however, the upper house voted 31-9 against a Farr bill which would have prohibited use of the death penalty for six years.

Larkspur Council Studies New Business License Fees

A new business license ordinance, with fees based on gross receipts of business actually done in Larkspur, was introduced last night by the Larkspur City Council.

Adoption of the ordinance is scheduled for the next council meeting, Feb. 4. If adopted, it will go into effect July 1.

Explained City Manager Ronald E. Piper: "As the gross receipts of the business fluctuate, the license fee fluctuates. I feel it is definitely more equitable."

Most Larkspur businessmen now pay $12 a year. Piper estimated most would pay about the same under the new ordinance.

Oakley Dexter, president of the Larkspur Chamber of Commerce, which has studied the new ordinance about four months and approved it, said: "From 1909 on there have been six separate business license ordinances. This brings it up to date. In many instances the tax will be less. As in my case (he has an electronics business), business done outside Larkspur won't be taxed."

Councilman Orrin W. Gray said the ordinance was a protection against door-to-door salesmen who often sell inferior merchandise. Such persons, along with handbill distributors, solicitors and street vendors, would pay $120 a year or $5 a day for a license.

Similar high fees would be levied against amusement arcades, pool and billiard halls (non-existent in Larkspur), circuses, carnivals and rummage sales. However, non-profit organization are exempted from obtaining business licenses.

Councilmen heard protests from Dr. J. L. Hurlbut of 22 Onyx avenue, who said: "I don't see why we should do anything to push small businesses to the wall when they're already there . . . They pay federal and state income taxes. Now the town has an income tax so they'll be paying three. They're paying tribute. The right to do business is an inherent right."

He predicted "nothing but Safeway stores in Larkspur" as small businessmen are legislated out of business.

A similar protest against any business license fee was entered by Robert Rideman of 221 Madrone avenue, an economics instructor at the Henry George School of Social Science in San Francisco.

The new fee system would be set up as follows:

1. Businesses with a yearly gross profit of 30 per cent or more and average gross receipts each month of $10,000 would pay a fee of $44.
2. Businesses with a yearly gross profit of 17 to 30 per cent and average gross receipts each month of $10,000 would pay a fee of $25.
3. Businesses with a yearly gross profit of 10 to 17 per cent and average gross receipts each month of $10,000 would pay a fee of $15.50.
4. Businesses with a yearly gross profit of less than 10 per cent and average gross receipts each month of $10,000 would pay a fee of $7.75.

In each profit category, the fee would fluctuate with the gross receipts.

Another provision of the ordinance would give businesses not based in Larkspur, contractors in particular, the option of a flat rate of $12.50 a quarter or a fee based on gross receipts. Contractors now pay a Larkspur fee of $25 a year.

Public Hearing Slated On 1-Way Street Plan

San Rafael's proposed "one-way circle" traffic pattern to relieve congestion at the Irwin street underpass will get a public hearing before the city council on Jan. 19 at 8 p.m.

The one-way street committee, headed by Richard Cuthbert, met at King Cotton restaurant this morning and asked City Manager Dan E. Andersen to set up the public hearing so property owners can express their views. Next Thursday morning, the committee hopes to have an engineer from the state Division of Highways discuss First street extension from the Miracle Mile to Highway 101.

The "one-way circle" plan would route traffic in this way: Cars would go one-way eastbound through the Irwin street underpass, one-way north on Irwin to Third street, one-way left on Third past the bus depot to Lincoln avenue, one-way south on Lincoln to Francisco boulevard, and one-way eastbound on Francisco back to the underpass.

Tamalpais avenue on the east side of the railroad tracks would permit cars to go south on Tamalpais (instead of north as at present) and turn right to reach the bus depot.

A no-parking rule would be adopted for the rush hours of 4 to 6 p.m. on the east side of Irwin street from the underpass to Belle, and on the south side of Third street from Irwin to about Grand avenue.

Change Asked In Belvedere Phone Service

Substitution of two-party line message rate service for existing four-party line flat rate telephone service in the Belvedere exchange was proposed yesterday by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The company asked permission from the state Public Utilities Commission to make the change in Belvedere and in several exchanges in the East Bay.

The company's suggested rate for the new service is $3 for up to 60 message units and four and a quarter cents for each additional unit.

Building Here Included In $1 Million Sale

Sale of real estate properties in San Rafael, Sacramento, Long Beach, Fullerton and on the south shore of Lake Tahoe by San Rafael real estate developer Desmond MacTavish was announced today.

The transaction involved "a sum in excess of a million dollars," it was announced.

San Rafael property involved is an office building at 612 D street, in which MacTavish maintains offices.

The Tahoe property includes a Safeway store, Tidewater Oil service station and unimproved parcels on which a three-quarter-million-dollar motel is planned, all located in the South Shore Shopping Center at Bijou.

Linn C. Alexander and Associates, San Francisco real estate organization, is the buyer.

Macy's Clerks Gain Pay Raise With New Pact

A pay raise, life insurance, three-week vacations and a company-paid medical plan have been won by Retail Clerks Union Local 1119 in negotiations with Macy's of California.

Signing of a new three-year contract for Macy's San Rafael store was reported to the Marin County Labor Council last night by Lorin Young of the retail clerks.

The contract calls for a 5-cent hourly pay increase on March 1, followed by a second of like amount one year later. A $1,000 group life insurance policy is provided each clerk, and sick leave is recognized.

Starting next year, the store will grant three-week vacations to employees with five years' service, and in 1961 the clerks will be covered by a company-paid medical plan.

The Labor Council heard from Lloyd Brooks of the Construction and General Laborers Union that the advent of rains has idled 200 laborers. However, Paul Crumley of the Carpenters Union and E. N. Frye of the Electrical Workers Union reported only a few men idle in those crafts.

The Painters Union has a program to keep its few unemployed members working, reported Hal Norton. They'll be put to work next week renovating the interior of the union's hall at 701 Mission avenue, San Rafael, which is Labor Council headquarters.

1958 Building In San Rafael Nears Record

Total 1958 value of building construction in San Rafael was considerably higher than for 1957 and second only to the record construction year of 1956, according to Building Inspector Clifford Monk.

Last year's building permits represented a total value of $6,424,401, almost a million dollars more than the $5,584,399 posted in 1957. The record thus far is $8,266,384 in 1956.

If the present upturn in construction activity, especially on apartment buildings, continues, another big year is ahead, Monk said.

The big month last year was October, when permits for $1,136,000 worth of construction were issued. March was next with $959,800, followed by July with $664,563.

The "lean" months last year were April with $255,000; February with $299,700, and September with $345,400.

George Nunes Critically Ill

George P. Nunes of Point Reyes, dairyman and West Marin community leader, is critically ill in San Rafael General Hospital, it was learned today.

Nunes underwent major surgery at a San Francisco hospital early in December, and was later transferred to San Rafael General.

The physician attending Nunes said today his patient's condition is critical.

Nunes is a trustee of the Point Reyes School District and of the Tomales Joint Union High School District, and president of the West Marin Property Owners Assn.

Representing the property owners group, Nunes last fall spearheaded a West Marin battle against a proposal to establish a national recreation area on the Pt. Reyes peninsula.

SEWAGE

bathrooms—if they can stand it!"

She declared the bathroom in her house was inoperable for 27 days during last winter's heavy storms.

In the making is a militant mothers' march to the county board of supervisors for an airing of grievances and an outpouring of pent-up emotions.

The affected area lies in the Gallinas Village County Sewer Maintenance District. About half the district's $1.41 tax rate is being levied for correction of deficiencies in a sewer treatment plant near John MacPhail School and improvement of other facilities.

The sewer district, operated by the board of supervisors, was to have been taken over this fiscal year by the Gallinas Village Community Services District. But this was prevented when the sewer tax rate, because of needed repairs and improvements, zoomed well past the maximum $1 levy which state law permits service districts to impose.

In mid-1957, J. D. O'Connor, Gallinas Village developer, announced he was no longer financially able to operate the sewage treatment system, which serves about 260 homes. His treatment plant never was completed in accordance with county specifications.

When O'Connor left the scene, the supervisors formed the maintenance district for public operation of the system.

Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham said yesterday the roughly $15,000 worth of repairs and improvements to be made this year should ease many of the district problems. But he could not predict an end to the trouble on Descanso way.

That specific problem, he said, is caused by storm water flowing into a gravity line running to the treatment plant from a lift pump near the entrance to Descanso.

"Pressure builds up and forces sewage back to the houses, where it remains until the amount of storm water decreases," Brigham explained.

He mentioned two ways of alleviating the situation.

A by-pass line by the treatment plant "to let excess water out fast during a storm" may be added to improvement specifications being prepared for the county by an East Bay consulting engineer, said Brigham, but he warned it may not bring 100 per cent relief.

The second measure, not presently contemplated, would be to install another sewer line serving the Descanso houses separately, Brigham said.

Most of the tax money to be spent this year will go toward correction of treatment plant deficiencies. Brigham said the plans should be ready sometime in February "and work should start around the beginning of March."

Meanwhile, discouraged residents of Descanso way are gloomily anticipating more of their sewage backflow troubles in the weeks and months ahead. Thoroughly fed up with promises, they want action—not words.

As to the other matters, McGill repeated that "there just isn't any money."

BRIGHT PUPIL MAY BE RIGHT ON 'KHRUSHY'

LONDON (UPI)—Columnist Peterborough in The Daily Telegraph today tells the story of the bright Russian child who was "a year ahead of the other children in his class."

When asked by the school inspector to name the three biggest traitors in the Soviet Union the boy replied "Stalin, Malenkov and Krushchev."

"Yes," the inspector told the teacher, "He is a year ahead."

Youth Injured As Auto Flips; Trucker Hurt

A San Rafael truck driver and a City College of San Francisco student were injured yesterday in separate accidents on Marin highways.

Most seriously injured was the student, John N. Rosso Jr., 24, of San Francisco, whose sedan rammed a bank on Highway 101 just south of the Waldo tunnel about 3 p.m.

Rosso was pinned under his overturned car. Passersby helped roll the auto off him. He was taken to Marin General Hospital by Marin Ambulance where he was found to have suffered a fractured skull and cuts on his forehead and left hand. He was still in serious condition today.

The driver of a loaded sand and gravel truck, Alfred M. Berry, 54, of 219 Ross street, San Rafael, suffered minor injuries yesterday morning on the three-mile downgrade of the Marshall-Petaluma road.

Berry told highway patrolmen he was westbound, descending the grade in second gear, when about a mile from the bottom of the hill his brakes failed. He said he knew he couldn't slow enough for the next curve so he went off the roadway embankment, the truck rolling over twice in a 70 foot drop.

Berry was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a small cut on his left hand and kept overnight for observation.

Amy Richardson Succumbs At 83

Mrs. Amy Helen Richardson, mother of Mrs. Helen R. Anderson of 87 Nelson avenue, Mill Valley, died last night at her daughter's home after a brief illness. She was 83.

She had resided with her daughter for eight years. She formerly resided in Camarillo, Ventura County. She was a native of Halifax, Nova Scotia.

In addition to her daughter in Mill Valley, she is survived by a son, Edward M. Richardson of Duncan, B.C.; another daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Davis of Salt Lake City, Utah; a sister, Miss Hilda Kearney of Kentville, Nova Scotia, and by four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

A Requiem Mass will be said at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church in Mill Valley Saturday at 9:30 a.m., with the cortege forming at the Russell and Gooch chapel a half hour earlier. Interment will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael. The Rosary will be recited at the mortuary chapel tomorrow at 8 p.m.

JURY

gustina Perry, housewife, 121 Filbert street, Sausalito; Arthur E. Lewis, boat and shipbuilder, Rose court, Sausalito; Waldo G. Giacomini, dairyman, Point Reyes Station; Mel J. London, industrial executive, 17 Stone court, San Anselmo, and Mrs. Cecelia Michaels, housewife, 216 Mountain View avenue, San Rafael.

The five who were nominated by the judges but eliminated in today's drawing were Mrs. Mary C. Kirkpatrick, San Anselmo housewife; Andrew J. Swedlund, retired merchant from Ross; Harry H. Heifetz, Fairfax realty broker; William W. Munson, industrial chemicals, San Rafael, and R. C. Briggs Sr., Novato general contractor.

Presiding Judge N. Charles Brusatori announced the final 19 will be drawn at 8 p.m. Jan. 21 in the courthouse, and the jury impaneled that night. The presiding judge picks the foreman for the new grand jury.

Superior Court Judges Brusatori, Thomas F. Keating and Jordan L. Martinelli each selected 10 prospective grand jurors for today's drawing.

Bates Granted Reprieve From Gas Chamber

A member of San Quentin Prison's "Death Row," scheduled for execution on Jan. 16, was granted a reprieve yesterday by State Supreme Court Justice Jesse W. Carter of Sleepy Hollow.

Clyde Bates, 31, of Los Angeles, who was convicted of setting a tavern fire April 4, 1957 in which six persons were killed, was granted the stay yesterday. His partner in the crime, Manuel Joe Chavez, 26, who also had a date with death on Jan. 16, was granted a stay by Judge Carter last week.

A third murderer, scheduled to die in the gas chamber next week, John R. Crooker Jr., 34, asked the State Supreme Court yesterday for a stay to permit him to file a writ of habeas corpus.

Crooker, a former University of California at Los Angeles law student, was convicted of stabbing and strangling Mrs. Norma McCauley, a divorcee, at her Bel Air home on July 4, 1955.

Woman Held In N. Y. Kidnaping

NEW YORK (AP)—Police headquarters reported shortly before 2 p.m. today that a woman was being held in Brooklyn in connection with a kidnaping—presumably that of 2½ hour old Lisa Rose Chionchio last Friday night.

No further information was given immediately.

OBITUARIES

Edward M. Shelton Dies At 63

Edward M. Shelton, 20-year Mill Valley resident and widely known in the community's social life, died unexpectedly at his home last night at the age of 63.

He had retired in 1955 as president of the American Pacific Co., a San Francisco import-export firm.

He was a native of Brisbane, Australia, but spent most of his early life in Seattle. He was a graduate of the University of Washington.

In 1925 he went to the Philippines, where he remained until 1939. He was associated there with Connel Brothers and Wilbur-Ellis Co., Inc., in the import-export field.

Since then, he and his family made their home at 105 Molino avenue, Mill Valley.

Last year he and his wife, Marie, made a seven-month motor tour of England and the continent.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, Richard F. Shelton of San Francisco and Douglas Ballinger of Greenbrae; three daughters, Mary Ellen, who is visiting Mill Valley from Washington, D. C.; Alice Elizabeth of Woodland, and Ann, a senior at Whitman College in Walla Walla, Wash., and by a brother, five sisters and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the family home at 1 p.m. Saturday. The family has requested tributes be in the form of donations to Sunny Hills in San Anselmo.

BADMAN

Year's Santa Clara County officials took him into custody and placed him in the county hospital.

CONDITION SERIOUS

He was brought back to San Quentin in a station wagon, accompanied by a prison officer and a nurse.

"We can't tell just how serious his condition is, but it is serious," Warden Dickson declared.

There are a lot of questions to be answered about Escobar's escapades, but it will take time. "He's in a lot of pain and under sedatives," the warden said.

De Gaulle In Office; To Restore France

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle became today the first President of the Fifth French Republic and appointed Michel Debre as Premier.

In taking the oath of office, de Gaulle declared that during his seven-year term he would, if need be, impose what the public good demands.

Debre, 46, is an ardent Nationalist, a longtime Gaullist, and chief architect of the new constitution establishing the Fifth Republic.

He was justice minister in de Gaulle's interim government. Naming Debre was de Gaulle's first major act after he assumed the presidency of the republic shortly after noon. De Gaulle rode triumphantly down the Champs Elysees, then returned to his Elysee palace and summoned Debre.

TO SHARE DUTIES

Debre, a lawyer and administrative specialist, will share executive duties with de Gaulle. The new constitution gives most effective power to the president.

The constitution provides that the president name the premier. There is no provision, as previously, for the National Assembly to confirm him in office.

Cries of "Vive de Gaulle" came from thousands lining the broad Champs Elysees as he drove up the avenue in an open car after taking office. The 68-year-old wartime Free French leader stood stiff and erect despite a brisk wind and nippy 42-degree temperatures.

At the Arch of Triumph de Gaulle and retiring President Rene Coty symbolically rekindled the eternal flame that marks the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

"The first among Frenchmen is henceforth first-ranking man in France," intoned outgoing President Rene Coty.

21-GUN SALUTE

A big 21-gun salute boomed across the Seine as diminutive Gen. Georges Catroux reached up to hand the gold necklace of office around the neck of his towering World War II comrade and commander.

The brief ceremony in the presidential Elysee Palace marked the end of the largely figurehead role which French presidents had filled under the Fourth Republic. The new constitution de Gaulle rammed through last summer converted the office into one of real power, along the lines of the U. S. presidency.

Coty, the beloved, 76-year-old outgoing chief of state, told his solemn-faced successor:

"The people of France, so divided on the surface, have found around you their profound unity . . ."

De Gaulle's elevation ended seven months and a week as premier during which he became the undisputed leader of his country, as he had been at the end of World War II.

REVISED GOVERNMENT

During those crowded months he quelled the rebellion of colonists in Algeria that had brought him back to office, revised the governmental structure of France, laid the foundation for new relations between France and her overseas territories, launched a tough program of economic austerity, saw elected a new National Assembly with a large majority pledged to support him and won the presidency of the new Fifth Republic by an overwhelming vote.

Flier Rescued At Sea

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—A Navy flier who spent 14 hours on a life raft after his plane crashed in the Pacific Ocean was rescued yesterday.

Lt. Cmdr. W. L. Armstrong, 35, of Chula Vista, attached to San Diego Naval Air Station, was reported in good condition although suffering from exposure. He was rescued 20 miles south of here by a Navy helicopter team, one of 20 aircraft crews participating in the search.

Soviet Refugees Picket Mikoyan Arrival For Tour Of Detroit

DETROIT (UPI)—Russian Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan arrived by plane today for a whirlwind one-day tour of the motor capital.

Mikoyan was shielded from an initial group of about 50 anti-Soviet pickets who were on hand for his arrival. The pickets were allowed to parade in the parking lot on one side of the long administration building at Willow Run Airport.

The Soviet party's plane rolled up to a giant hangar at the north end of the field, and Mikoyan and his party of other Russian officials were escorted directly from the plane into the hangar.

A large force of police patrolled the field and administration buildings of the airport.

The pickets parading in the parking lot were composed of refugees from the Ukraine, Lithuania, Romania, Latvia and Hungary.

Some carried placards. One read "Whose blood will be next?"

The pickets distributed circulars charging that Mikoyan was more dangerous than Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev because he talked of peace, but meant Communist conquest of the world.

A leader of the pickets said other pickets would be on hand at other points for Mikoyan's quick tour of automobile plants, and that the big picket demonstration would take place when Mikoyan arrived late today at the exclusive Detroit club.

REBELS EXECUTE POLICE CAPTAIN — Two members of a rebel firing squad draw their guns on port police Capt. Alejandro Garcia Olayon of Santiago during execution in Santa Clara. Garcia Olayon was sentenced to death by a revolutionary court after being found guilty of the killing of a young revolutionary, Arsenio Escalona, whose body was found floating in a bay after being tortured. Garcia Olayon was arrested when he tried to escape in a yacht. The date of the execution is not known. (AP Wirephoto)

'War Crimes' Trials For Batista Followers Begin; 15 Already Shot

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Speedy "war crimes" trials for followers of fallen Dictator Fulgencio Batista have begun in Cuba. Fifteen military officers already have been executed.

Provisional President Manuel Urrutia said thousands of persons will be tried by revolutionary courts in "the same manner as war criminals were tried in Germany." They will be charged with crimes against the Cuban people.

Some of the accused still are being sought, Urrutia told a news conference last night. At least 1,100 persons have been reported arrested since Batista fled to the Dominican Republic a week ago and victorious rebel leader Fidel Castro proclaimed Urrutia as provisional president.

Gunfire flared briefly in Havana again last night. Machineguns and other automatic weapons fired for about 15 minutes near the American-operated Nacional Hotel as rebel militia reportedly pursued several carloads of men who had been shooting at random in the streets.

The militia still is trying to eliminate diehard Batista supporters, including members of a private army called the Tigers which belonged to former Sen. Rolando Masferrer.

Masferrer fled by yacht to Key West, Fla. Minister of the Presidency Luis Bush said Cuba will demand his extradition on charges of taking away 17 million dollars belonging to the people. U.S. Customs officials said Masferrer's party of 36 men had about $90,000 when it landed. The men were put on parole to the Miami Immigration Office.

The government banned sales of alcoholic drinks in Havana today in expectation that Castro finally would reach the capital. Officials hoped the ban would prevent heavy drinking that might add to the unstable security situation.

Pt. Reyes School Board Skips Monthly Session

The Point Reyes School District board skipped its monthly meeting last night because of the serious illness of trustee George P. Nunes, bad weather and the fact that the board had no pressing business on its agenda. The board's next meeting will be Feb. 4.

Duties Switch For Hamilton Commanders

Two group commanders within the 78th fighter group at Hamilton Air Force Base have been ordered to exchange duties, Col. George F. Ceuleers, base commander announced yesterday.

Col. Paulett Spivey, who has commanded the 78th maintenance and supply group since last summer, and Col. Rupert C. Welch, who has commanded the 78th air base group since July of 1957, were given each other's commands effective Jan. 1.

Key personnel within the two units have followed their commanders in the exchange. CWO Jay C. Groff Jr., T/Sgt. Charles Zell and T/Sgt. Mamie K. Ousdall have moved from the air base group to the M and S group. Transferred along with Col. Spivey to the air base group are his adjutant, Lt. Shelton Sorenson, M/S. C. H. Bush and A/1c Michael H. King.

Lt. James K. Keegan of the materials section at the M and S squadron has been reassigned to the deputy of operations office with the air base group.

Mill Valley Center Proposal Abandoned

Mill Valley's Recreation Council, Inc., last night washed its hands of the plan to move the American Legion building to the marshlands for use as a community center.

In a letter to the Mill Valley City Council signed by president Jack Younger and treasurer Rodric Robinson, the group noted that City Atty. Thomas C. Nelson had questioned the legality of a plan whereby the city would lease city property to the group for the building.

Former Councilman Robert R. Laughead, an officer of Recreation Council, declared from the audience: "A proposed bank loan to cover costs of moving and re-erection would be predicated on a firm leasehold. Without that, there will be no funds."

The letter said: "Although we have received a contrary legal opinion . . . we shall not pursue the subject of a recreation center, but will continue to cooperate with the city and the public in the development of Project 17."

Possibility that some such project may ultimately be financed by a city bond issue was suggested by Mayor Robert D. Huber. He suggested a recreation center "would appear to be perhaps a half-million-dollar project over-all."

Councilmen's comments on the Recreation Council's letter were varied.

Councilman Peter H. Behr declared, "It's a pity we can't find some way to make this plan come true." But Councilman George W. Blackwell said, "I think we are now getting to the stage where we are biting off more than we can chew."

Councilman Elizabeth Rodman said she has "come to the conclusion that the American Legion building is not the type of structure most wanted."

Councilman Joseph E. Sheeks had no comment.

Illiteracy in the Republic of Korea has declined from 80 per cent to less than 8 per cent since 1945.

Student Group Hears Talk By Mardikian

A testimony to the greatness of America by a man who came here as an immigrant at 19 and rose to fame was given San Francisco Theological Seminary students in San Anselmo today.

George M. Mardikian, restaurateur, author and radio-television personality, told the seminarians at an assembly: "I came to America in 1922 when I was 19 years old. I was an old man. I had seen five wars and I also saw my father killed when I was 12 years old. To come to America—the land of the free—became a pilgrimage for me."

Mardikian related that, shortly after arrival in San Francisco, feeling strange and lost, he went for an early morning walk. He was greeted cordially by a street sweeper, two fishermen, a trio of garbage men singing "Santa Lucia," a gong-ringing cable car conductor and a milk man.

"The lost feeling was gone when I saw these happy, free people. They symbolized the song of America. I knew I wanted to be a citizen of this country," said the onetime Armenian immigrant.

"I must tell others by the written and spoken word of this America whose greatness lies in her spiritual strength and where opportunity awaits all men."

$5 Month Fee To Muir Beach Water Users

Bills are in the mail to Muir Beach water users at the new flat rate of $5 per month, John White, secretary-manager, informed directors of Muir Beach Community Services District at their monthly meeting last night.

The new rate is double that in effect under previous ownership of the water system by James Weil.

The directors noted that all properties and facilities formerly owned by Weil have been transferred to the district and deeds recorded.

The board called for bids on terms of an $800 loan to the district to meet current expenses. White said the loan would be for two years with interest not to exceed 6 per cent. He said offers would be accepted until Jan. 19 at 5 p.m.

The board also created the position of treasurer at $1 per year and appointed White to fill that post in addition to his other jobs.

The Thirty Years War between Catholics and Protestants began in Germany in 1618.

Novato's NWP Depot Closed Without Hearing

Novato's Northwestern Pacific Railroad depot has been shut down and the Railway Express Agency discontinued, with no formal hearing.

The state Public Utilities Commission permitted the depot to close without a hearing after receiving no protests to the railroad's announced intention to discontinue the operation.

The depot's closing will not limit carload shipments out of Novato, but shippers must place their orders at the NWP agency in San Rafael. Pacific Motor Transport Co. trucks from Santa Rosa will continue to handle less than carload shipments.

Frank Howard, the station agent at Novato, has been transferred to Lakeville. His railway express agency had carried on business amounting to about $1,000 a month.

Educators Ponder Higher Standards

Consideration of administration recommendations for raising academic standards of College of Marin will be the first item on the agenda at tonight's meeting of the college board of trustees.

The meeting will start at 8 o'clock in Harlan Hall.

The board will receive a report on salary "hurdle" requirements for teachers from the faculty-administration evaluation committee. Consideration is to be given also to publishing of a home economics department brochure.

The trustees apparently will not take up a new faculty pay schedule discussed last month with the faculty representatives. Ward H. Austin, college president, said the matter still was being considered.

Loses Foot In Flight

VIENNA (UPI)—A Hungarian girl lost a foot in a dash for freedom through a Communist mine field, Austrian police said today.

They identified the victim as Klara Sarkany, 18, who escaped through the Iron Curtain with her parents and sister. Klara stepped on a mine near Schattendorf. Her family dragged her into Austrian territory, the police said.

3 Marin High School Youths To Spend Summer In Europe

The first three Marin high school students who have been selected to spend the summer with European families under sponsorship of the Experiment in International Living were announced today by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wheelwright of Muir Beach, joint chairmen of the Marin County selection committee.

Representing Tamalpais High School is Ian Schiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Schiller of 22 Madrone Park Circle, Mill Valley. Schiller, an architectural designer is president of the Tamalpais High School committee for the American Field Service international scholarship program — a separate program from the Experiment in International Living.

From Redwood High School, the committee selected Thorley Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Turner, 60 Elm avenue, Larkspur. Turner is a concessionaire at military establishments in the Bay Area.

Drake High School will be represented by Kenneth Wagstaff, 300 Hidden Valley lane, Sleepy Hollow, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wagstaff. His father is an architect.

FIRST OF GROUP

"These three are the first of a group who will travel to Europe," Mr. and Mrs. Wheelwright explained. "They will be sponsored by the Experiment up to $600 each for their expenses, with the balance coming from their own resources. There will be other high school seniors, not yet accepted, who will travel entirely at their own expense."

The students have a first and second choice of living in England, The Netherlands, West Germany, Switzerland, Sweden or Austria. Or they may select France or Italy if they speak the language fluently.

Students make application for the Experiment trips early in the school year, the chairmen explained. "They are considered by a selection committee at each school which includes a faculty representative," Wheelwright said.

Faculty representative at Tamalpais is Ted Mitchell; at Redwood, Robert Montner, and at Drake, H. Reynolds Stone.

Final selection is in the hands of Leighton Rollins of Santa Barbara, West Coast representative of the organization.

Nixon, Johnson Clash In Battle Of Personalities

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two men with a great stake in 1960's presidential contest—Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson—have finally squared off against each other in the Senate.

"This will not be a panty-waist fight," one intimate of Johnson's told United Press International. "This is a plain struggle between Johnson and Nixon."

His reference was to the Senate's opening day showdown between Johnson and Senate forces battling for a far tighter gag on filibusters, with Nixon in the forefront for the latter.

TEST LONG AWAITED

The long-awaited test of political personalities arose through the vice president's series of advisory opinions and tentative rulings on revision of Senate rules.

For months it has been no secret that Nixon was ready, if not anxious, to back up by a ruling his feeling that a majority of the Senate should be able to change its own rules. And behind this has been Nixon's strong support of civil rights legislation to assure Negroes and others their full equal opportunities under the fourteenth amendment.

VIEW ATTACKED

It was Nixon's willingness to rule on the current question that dramatized Johnson's own stand against him. The lanky Texas Democrat, smilingly caustic, told the Senate he thought the presiding vice president was "giving rulings pretty freely."

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) an old hand on parliamentary procedure and a Johnson tutor, challenged Nixon's rulings more bluntly. He suggested the Vice President was taking on "judicial powers" he lacks.

Burma, Indochina, Malaya and Thailand are bordering states in southeast Asia.

Larkspur To Accept Several New Streets

The Larkspur City Council last night served notice that it plans to accept certain streets for city maintenance three months hence.

A map, with the streets in question colored red, was shown to the four councilmen (Albert E. Heston was absent) and they agreed to display the map at the city hall to give Larkspur residents a chance to check it.

Mayor Daniel Allen pointed out that even after the streets are accepted, others may be added to the list if it can be proved the city ever accepted them. At present, no official record of accepted streets exists.

The councilmen also acted to rid streets in Hillview Gardens of chronic puddles, by providing labor to install new storm sewer pipes. Materials for the approximately 650 feet of six-inch pipe will be provided by the developer of Hillview Gardens, Louis J. Glicksberg. The Hillview Gardens street system will be accepted when the work is done.

In other business, the Larkspur Council:

1. Postponed action until Feb. 4 on a building variance request of Lorin A. Hall of 60 Diane lane, Heather Gardens, to build a carport in front of his house for a county fire truck of which he is the driver.

2. Voted against commercial zoning of the Masonic Temple, Banfield, Merret and Goss properties along the north side of Magnolia avenue in Murray Park. One lot is vacant but the Masonic Temple, a medical office building and a real estate office building operate under use permits on the other properties. Behind these properties and the Garden Spot Nursery is an undeveloped five-acre commercially zoned property.

4. Agreed to coordinate planning with the Bay Area Rapid Transit District, but did not go along with idea of any Larkspur gasoline tax money being diverted for rapid transit use.

5. Authorized City Engineer John C. Oglesby to go ahead on plans to pave Orange street with a 30-foot-wide roadway and improve Holly, Tamalpais and Hazel streets. James G. Chesnut of 10 Tamalpais street presented a petition signed by 10 of the 14 residents who would underwrite the assessment district.

6. Agreed to have city labor erect a concrete block bus stop shelter opposite the entrance to Hillview Gardens, with $300 for materials supplied by the Hillview Gardens Homeowners Assn.

7. Accepted a recommendation of City Manager Ronald E. Piper that Mrs. Ruby Daly, city account clerk, work half-time and that her fulltime salary of $281 a month be halved. He said the way the city books are now set up, city accounting takes a fraction of the time it did before. Mrs. Daly has completed a project of banancing the books for 20 years back, Piper said.

8. Authorized construction of a new $1,820 sewer pipeline, 705 feet of six-inch pipe, on Murray lane.

Pilot Strike Continues

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A pilots' strike against American Airlines went into its 20th day today with both sides reported to be in tentative agreement on major issues but deadlocked on small points.

Chairman Leverett Edwards of the National Mediation Board, who is supervising negotiations, said talks between the airline and Airline Pilots Assn. may collapse if the stalemate on minor issues continued.

Losing Anti-Filibusters To Use Other Weapons

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Anti-filibuster senators, who lost their first round skirmish at the opening of Congress, said today they had "other weapons in the arsenal" to use in their fight to change Senate rules.

The controversy threatened to paralyze the Senate in the first days of the new session. The bipartisan Liberal bloc which wants to curb talkathons planned to take the initiative today when the chamber met two hours earlier than usual.

The Liberals said they would try to set aside a compromise proposal offered by Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) and substitute a motion by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.) for the Senate to adopt new rules.

Johnson won a convincing opening day victory by ramming through an adjournment motion that choked off temporarily Anderson's effort and left his own proposal before the senate for action today. Johnson's move carried 71 to 23.

The confusing rules fight centers around two main controversial points:

—Whether the senate has continuing rules that carry over from session to session.

—Tightening the present anti-filibuster rule which requires a two-thirds vote of the entire membership—or 66—before debate can be limited.

Collier Plans To Freeze Gas Tax

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A move to bypass a scheduled half-cent cut in the state gasoline tax and write the present six cent fee into law permanently was outlined today by Sen. Randolph Collier (R-Yreka).

Collier, head of the powerful Senate Transportation Committee, said he will introduce a bill next week making permanent the six cent tax bite put on by the Legislature in 1953 as an emergency measure.

McCollister Bill Asks Tideland Assignment

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Marin Assemblyman Richard H. McCollister introduced bills yesterday which would give stateowned tidelands and submerged lands in Richardson's Bay to the City of Mill Valley, to Marin County and to an unspecified district.

McCollister previously had announced he would attempt to deed all the state's underwater property in the bay to Mill Valley. This brought a flood of protests, he said, so he introduced the series of bills in order that the property could be given to the city, the county, a district or split, whichever way is finally decided.

He also introduced a bill which would allow division of the million dollar fund for expansion of Tamalpais State Park so that desired portions of Frank's Valley and the Dias ranch could be acquired and remaining funds could be used for other expansion purchases.

Other major bills introduced in the Legislature would:

Abolish cross filing by prohibiting the present practice of candidates for public office filing on both the GOP and the Democratic primary ballots (Munnell-Crown).

Make the chief of the Division of Beaches and Parks appointive by the governor instead of the state Park Commission (Unruh).

Replace 55 mile per hour prima facie speed limit with 60 m.p.h maximum speed limit, but permits zoning up to 65 or 70 miles an hour on basis of traffic survey (AB27 Dahl).

Increase minimum penalty for major narcotics offenses to 30 years in prison without possibility of parole (AB13 Luckel). A similar bill provides for the 30 year penalty but would give the judge some discretion on first offenses (AB28 Crawford).

Extend the exemption on state water filings from the due diligence requirement for 10 years (SB4 Cobey). A similar bill would make a four-year extension (AB6 Davis).

Provide that the breakage from the first 27 million dollars handle in pari-mutuel pools during a horse race meet should go to the state rather than the tracks (AB12 Lowrey).

Ask people to vote on whether they want a constitutional convention to revise the state constitution (ACR4 Burton).

Repeal prohibition against white persons marrying Negroes Mongolians, members of the Malay race (AB7 Elliott).

Provide that illegally obtained evidence is admissible in trials for violation of narcotics laws or carrying concealed weapons (AB39 Crawford).

Set up 30 million dollar state fund to help junior colleges construct additional facilities; institutions must pay 75 per cent of cost (AB24 Hegland).

Permit gifted high school students to attend junior college while still in senior year (AB10 Hegland).

Require all school districts to levy maximum tax on property owners before qualifying for state aid; reduce basic state support by five dollars a pupil; sets up increased aid for impoverished districts (AB18--A1 Winton).

Townsend Harris, who founded the City College of New York, was the first American Consul General to Japan in 1855.

Demos Study Program To Boost Revenue

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Key Democrats in the Legislature are studying a tentative 326 million dollar tax program as a way out of the state's growing financial crisis.

The tax proposals also are undergoing close scrutiny from Gov. Edmund G. Brown and his "kitchen cabinet."

Not all of them will wind up as firm legislative proposals —but chances are excellent that before the 1959 session is many weeks old some of the proposed new or higher taxes will be introduced as bills with the backing of Brown and his floor leaders in the two houses.

Under study by the Democrats are these tax proposals:

1. A three-cent tax on each pack of cigarettes plus comparable levies on other tobacco products to yield 70 million dollars a year.

2. An increase in beer taxes to net 8 million a year. Hard liquor tax increases also are being considered but there is some feeling whisky already is taxed to the limit.

3. An 11 per cent across-the-board tax on pari mutuel receipts with the state taking a bigger slice of the breakage. Should net 22 million a year.

4. A 1 per cent increase on corporation taxes for $38,500,000 plus a five million dollar boost on bank taxes.

5. A 1 per cent increase in personal income taxes, aimed at adding 103 million dollars a year in revenue to the state.

6. Tax on insurance companies, possible income $2,500,000.

7. A severance tax on oil and gasoline, similar to the Texas formula, which would net 60 million dollars a year.

8. A severance tax on timber, worth an estimated 17 million dollars in revenue.

"These are the areas we are studying," said one Assembly Democratic leader. "We know the governor and the legislative analyst are too. What we have to decide is which of these taxes are the good ones and which are the bad ones, whether to raise existing taxes or try to levy new ones."

Vandal In Cemetery

Vandals broke into a shed at Mt. Olivet Cemetery north of San Rafael and stole several cigarettes and a jacket, cemetery foreman William F. Hansen reported to the sheriff's office last night.

Sydney, founded in 1788, is the oldest city in Australia.

Trojans Bitter At NCAA Penalty

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—University of Southern California officials found it difficult today to hide resentment over the school being put on a two-year probationary period for illegal recruitment of high school athletes.

Dr. Norman Topping, president of USC, said he was "astonished."

USC Track Coach Jess Mortensen, whose team won the National Collegiate Athletic Association crown in 1958 after a year on probation, declared, "I'm so disgusted, I've nothing to say."

Topping's full statement said the school officially was "disappointed to hear that the NCAA had imposed sanctions against the university for code violations which took place during the summer of 1957.

"As was announced following the December meeting of our Board of Trustees, a necessary administrative reorganization has been accomplished which will prevent any future violations of athletic codes or agreements," he continued.

"I'm astonished that the NCAA reached its conclusion without previously presenting the university with a complete copy of all evidence and without interviewing supposed offenders," he said.

The Trojans previously were under probation with the NCAA, up until last year, and had been fined by the Pacific Coast Conference along with Washington, UCLA, and California in a big squabble over scholarship requirements and financial aid that precipitated the PCC demise.

Peter Daland, USC swim coach, was one of the unhappiest over the ruling, since his squad, bolstered by Australians Murray Rose and Jon Hendricks, was a prime contender for national honors.

"It's quite a blow," he said.

USC baseball and track squads won intercollegiate championships last spring. Their tennis squad featured Alex Olmedo, hero of the Davis Cup triumph, and a fine golf team was led by Allan Geiberger, one of the nation's finest amateurs.

Six Colts On A.P. All-Pro Selection

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gino Marchetti, Baltimore's destructive defensive end, led the voting for The Associated Press' 1958 National Football League's all-pro team, dominated by the champion Colts and the New York Giants.

Marchetti, an eight-year veteran from the University of San Francisco, was the only unanimous choice among the 41 writers who covered the NFL campaign this season. The 6-4, 240-pounder was one of six Colts named to the two units, one more than the Giants.

Johnny Unitas, the great quarterback; offensive end Ray Berry; offensive tackle Jim Parker; defensive tackle Gene Lipscomb and fleet halfback Lenny Moore were the other Colts named.

Linebacker Sam Huff led the five Giants named to the all-pro squad. The others were offensive tackle Rosey Brown, center Ray Weitecha, defensive end Andy Robustelli and safetyman Jimmy Patton.

Los Angeles placed three men on offense, guard Duane Putnam, end Del Shofner and halfback Jon Arnett.

Pittsburgh placed two, defensive tackle Ernie Stautner and defensive halfback Jack Butler.

Detroit's Lions also won two places on the all-star squad—linebacker Joe Schmidt and defensive halfback Yale Ary. Cleveland's sole representative was Jimmy Brown, who received all but two of the votes for fullback. Green Bay's honored player was safety Bobby Dillon while middle guard Bill George was the Chicago Bears' man. Offensive guard Dick Stanfel made it for Washington.

Philadelphia, San Francisco and the Chicago Cardinals were not represented.

(Offensive tackle Bob St. Clair was named to the second team, the only San Francisco player mentioned on the squad.)

Boyd Fights Like Windmill, Wins TV Nod

CHICAGO (AP)—Bobby Boyd is far from being the best middleweight around, but he can qualify as the best scatter-gun fighter.

The loose jointed Chicago Negro wind-milled his way to a split 10-round decision over veteran Holly Mims last night in a televised bout at Chicago Stadium.

In a way, you felt rather sorry for Mims, ranked No. 7 by the National Boxing Assn. Boyd, who is unranked, fights with the turbulence of a storm cloud.

"I didn't want to bring Mims into Chicago in the first place," fumed Mims' manager, Nick Trotta. "That Boyd swarmed over him, backhanded him, elbowed him, shoved him nearly through the ropes. And he was warned.

Boyd licked the Washington, D. C. battler in Chicago Stadium in 1956 when Bobby was at his peak and ranked No. 1. They fought to a draw in Miami Beach a year ago.

The enveloping tactics of the octopus-like Boyd and his willy-nilly punching was too much for Mims, who constantly was forced into the ropes. But Mims landed the best punches. He staggered his looming opponent with a left hook in the first round, but clinched instead of following up.

He had Boyd a little rocky in the last round with another left and a good combination. But Mims has had only 11 knockouts in 10 years as a pro. Boyd has scored 23. He's got power, but it's just a question of organizing it.

Under the five-point must system, Judge Harold Marovitz favored Mims 47-46. Judge Jim McManus and Referee Joey White each had Boyd on top 47-44. The Associated Press gave it to Boyd 47-46.

Boyd had a weigh pull of 160¼ pounds to 155½. The victory left him with a 51-10-3 record. Mims is 45-17-6.

NCAA Action Was A Big Surprise

CINCINNATI (AP)—The University of Southern California, which last year scored the first team triple in NCAA championship history, today was left with crack baseball, tennis and track squads that cannot defend their titles.

And the USC swimming team, boasting Australian stars Murray Rose and Jon Henricks, is not eligible to challenge Michigan for the NCAA swimming championship because the NCAA Executive Council last night placed Southern Cal on two years' probation for violation of the NCAA athletic code.

The Southern California action crept up on the 2,200 delegates like a Trojan horse.

It had been expected that Southern Cal, already serving a two-year probation, would be restored to good graces. The previous two-year probation had been due to expire Nov. 13, 1958, and the official announcement that it had done so was expected by the NCAA.

But the probationary period was quietly extended while the committee on infractions continued an investigation into "improper inducements" offered to prospective student-athletes. The names of the athletes, both currently members of the USC football team, were not disclosed because it is interested in penalizing institutions, not individuals.

Over-all, the university is barred from participating in 15 NCAA championship events and 28 cooperating events for the period of one year; from participation in any NCAA-controlled sports television appearances for two years, and it was stipulated additionally that any violation of NCAA requirements during the two-year period may be considered as cause for expulsion from the NCAA.

Ski Time Arrives In The Sierra; Races, Jumps Slated This Weekend

Good news, skiers! Ullr, the God of Winter known for protecting plants and seeds from the northern frosts by covering the ground with a blanket of snow, finally came through with three feet of snow to protect the ski resorts of the high Sierra and bring joy to thousands of winter sports enthusiasts.

On the ski calendar this weekend are the Nordic training camp championships and the FWSA junior divisional cross-country and jumping at Heavenly Valley which was postponed from last week. Both cross-country races will be held Saturday and all jumping events on Sunday. The new 50-meter hill will be used by the collegiate jumpers and the juniors will use the 20 meter hill.

SUNDAY the Dick Buek Memorial Giant Slalom for juniors, classes 1, 2 and 3, will be held at the Sugar Bowl on Highway 40. Buek, who schussed Sun Valley's Exhibition run, traveling over 80 miles an hour, won the nationals in 1952, placed 12th at the Olympic Games downhill in Oslo, Norway in 1952, and won the Harriman Cup at Sun Valley in 1953.

In the summer of 1953 a car collided head-on with the motorcycle he was riding in the East Bay. Doctors said he would never be able to walk again, let alone ski. But with his determined spirit he went on to win the national downhill championships at Aspen, Colorado, entered the 1957 FIS meet and the Roch Cup at Aspen with a back and legs so weak he could not stand up straight and could barely bend his knees.

Dick Buek of Soda Springs, kidely known as "mad-man of the mountain," ended his daredevil life in an accidental plane crash into Donner Lake in the summer of 1957.

DR. WILLIAM W. Stiles, professor of Public Health at the University of California, has been named Medical Director for the Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley next year. He will organize and direct the emergency medical care and general health program during the Games along with the professional services of the National Ski Patrol and the American Red Cross.

INTERNATIONAL Business Machines Corporation will furnish an electronic computer for the Olympics which will print scoring results of speed and figure skating and all ski events within two minutes after a finish. The IBM 305 RAMAC (random access method of accounting and control) will print the results, a biography and 200-word brief of past and current performances of every competitor in either French, the official language of the Olympics, or in English, the alternate.

MR. AND MRS. Leonard Martin and sons, Steven, Andy, Chris and Paul, of Ross, and Carelle Wheeler of Novato enjoyed a recent stay at Squaw Valley. Guests over the holidays at the Donner Lake cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Bert F. Johnson and sons, Norman and Bruce, of Novato, were Mrs. Fred Berick and daughter Judi, Miss Paula Hansen of Novato, and Mr. and Mrs. James R. Johnson of San Rafael.

SNOW DEPTHS at winter sports areas in northern California, as of 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 7, are compiled by the Winter Sports Committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce.

Tire chains must be carried by every car entering a snow area.

Albie Named Rookie Of Year In A.L.

BOSTON (UPI)—Albie Pearson, the jaunty little Washington Senators outfielder who made the major leagues despite his fire hydrant size, tolday held the American League's top rookie award for 1958.

Pearson was named on 14 of 24 votes by baseball writers.

The selection came as a distinct surprise to many baseball followers. New York Yankees relief pitcher Ryne Duren had been considered the leading candidate.

Duren, who compiled a miserly 2.01 earned run average for the Yanks while hurling brilliantly as a fireballing fireman, placed second in the voting with seven votes. Righthanded pitcher Gary Bell of the Cleveland Indians, who had a 12-10 record, was the only other player named, getting three votes.

SMALLEST PLAYER

Pearson, the littlest player in either league at 5-4⅞, has been battling against his diminutive stature since breaking into baseball five years ago.

The West Covina, Calif., resident got his chance for the big leagues following a defensively spectacular season with San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League in 1957 when he was credited with 28 assists and started seven double plays as an outfielder while batting .297.

News Hawks Forced The Untimely Announcement Of Brennan Story

CONNOLLY

Colleges have not learned a lesson from terrible prohibition. They still are trying to legislate against human nature.

We have for example the question of what prompted the University of Notre Dame to fire Coach Terry Brennan on Christmas Eve.

Everybody seems to have forgotten why Terry was fired. The main complaint is they should not have "canned" him when they did.

No one seems to understand that Notre Dame is first of all an educational institution . . . secondly a football aggregation.

It's a combination like ham and eggs. If you ain't got one you don't want the other.

So Notre Dame has scooted along through the years earning the plaudits of everybody as a football factory as well as an educational institution.

When my youngster had his pick of colleges he chose Notre Dame and went there, not as a football prospect, but as a student. Today he is a living example of what education can mean to a young man.

HE IS A football fan first and always, but always has he been a student. He never asked for a favor at South Bend. He went there for an education and he got it. So naturally when the furore of Brennan came up, we talked it over.

And who do you suppose the whole mess is blamed on? Nobody but the newspaper men.

The college bosses had decided to make a change and Terry knew it. But the newspaper boys surreptiously found out about it and decided it was a story.

And every time they went to the Notre Dame padres, they got the cold shoulder. "Nothing to report."

SO FINALLY when it got so "hot" it wouldn't keep, the president of Notre Dame had to release the story.

And that and that only is the reason why Terry Brennan and his four kids got a Christmas present they didn't expect.

Notre Dame students, those who have graduated, think the powers that be at Notre Dame made a very serious mistake when they selected Brennan in the first place. The alumni thought he was too young; too unsophisticated. He wasn't like Rockne nor like Leahy. He was just one of the many sturdy and fine athletes Notre Dame had groomed. But he wasn't a coach who could bring along youngsters, mold character, like Rockne did, and so it came to pass he was slated for a ride down the soapy chute.

Nobody at Notre Dame wanted Terry to be "fired." They would rather see him slide out easily and resign, but being Irish, Terry wouldn't resign or admit he had not filled Rockne's shoes. So there wasn't anything else for the bosses at Notre Dame to do but give him the boot.

THE BOSSES at Notre Dame regret the newspapers forced them to release the story ahead of time. But they had to do it and thus ended a very delicate situation.

At Notre Dame, the bosses are never wrong.

They were never wrong when the late Knute Rockne was there.

They were always right when Frank Leahy was there and there is no way of telling how right they can be by selecting Joe Khuharich to succeed Terry Brennan.

I never like the story from the start, but I thought you might like to get the low down on it from a purely scholastic standpoint.

And who sez I'm right?

VOLLEYBALL CHAMPS — Members of the U. S. Army Air Defense Command championship team, representing the Sixth Region, present title trophy to Major General E. J. Army Champ To Compete At Hamilton

The national championship volleyball team representing Sixth Region, U.S. Army Air Defense Command at Ft. Baker, will be one of at least eight teams to participate in the Hamilton Air Force Base Open Volleyball Tournament Saturday.

The Army team recently won the U.S. Army Air Defense Command's national title, defeating teams from throughout the nation in a tournament conducted at Presidio of San Francisco.

Paced by setman and All-American Catalino Ignacio and spikers Dave Rhem and Al Kincaid, the Ft. Baker team will compete in the single round robin tournament beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday. Other teams tentatively scheduled to participate include those from Hamilton and Travis Air Force Bases, Embarcadero YMCA of San Francisco, Athens Club of San Francisco, Olympic Club of San Francisco, Sacramento YMCA, Stockton YMCA and Oakland YMCA.

On Jan. 17, the Ft. Baker team is scheduled to participate in the Northern California Armed Forces League play at Presidio. Top military teams will compete in the event.

Olmedo Injured; Quits Aussie Net Tourney

PERTH (AP) — Alejandro Olmedo's sensational Australian tennis campaign came to a temporary halt today when the young Peruvian was forced to withdraw from the Western Australian championship because of a strained stomach muscle.

Playing with United States Davis Cup teammate Barry MacKay, of Dayton, Ohio, in the doubles semi-finals, Olmedo walked off the court after playing 12 games and said: "I am sorry—I cannot continue."

At that stage the 22-year-old Olmedo who almost singlehandedly whipped Australia in the Davis Cup Challenge Round 10 days ago, had dropped his third straight service and was in obvious pain. Sweden's Ulf Schmidt and Jan Lundquist had won the first set 6-3 and were leading 2-1 in the second.

Although no formal announcement was made it was a virtual certainty that Olmedo also would pull out of the singles semi-finals tomorrow, when he is scheduled to play Andres Gimeno of Spain, and rest himself for the Australian nations later this month in Adelaide.

Olmedo's default would send Gimeno into the singles final where he would meet the winner of the match between MacKay and Earl Buchholz Jr. of St. Louis, American teammates. The two Yanks clash tomorrow.

Olmedo said his troublesome stomach muscle was a chronic one which hurt him several times in California and reappeared in his Challenge Round match against Australia's Ashley Cooper in Brisbane, Dec. 31.

Fat Dividend For Giants' Stockholders

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Giants paid a $20 dividend on each unit share of stock following its first season here.

Club treasurer Edgar P. Feeley in New York said yesterday the dividend was declared Nov. 26 by directors of the National Exposition Co., the corporate owner of the club, and was made payable last Monday.

The dividend included $2 on preferred stock and $18 on common stock.

Last June, National Exposition sold over-the-counter at $225 a share. The surrent bid and asked prices are $330 and $370 respectively.

In 1957, the club's last year in New York, the dividend was $6 per unit—$2 for preferred stock and $4 for common.

Elliott To Pick Up Award At Milwaukee

Elliott is due to return to Sydney Feb. 12.

Bums' Night Schedule

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Dodgers announced yesterday they will play a record 60 night games at home this year.

Attendance Drops; Sox Face Cut In Salaries

CHICAGO (AP) — A drop in 1958 attendance has brought a pay cut for most of the Chicago White Sox players.

Chuck Comiskey, the club's vice president, said that most of the 1959 contracts in the mail now, or at their destination, call for salary reductions.

He said contracts are budgeted primarily on home attendance, which was off 338,000 from the 1957 figure. The Sox also were down 365,000 on the road. It is believed that only catcher Sherm Lollar, outfielder Jim Landis and shortstop Luis Aparicio escaped pay cuts.

Alice Hagge To Marry

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Professional golfer Alice Bauer Hagge will marry Harold Eugene Hovey, 42-year-old Sarasota investor. The pair filed application for a marriage license at the courthouse yesterday.

THE DOOR IS WIDE OPEN UNTIL FEBRUARY 1 FOR CALIFORNIANS 65 OR OVER

There is still time to join THE FUND/65 PLAN that helps pay your MEDICAL-SURGICAL BILLS!

NO MEDICAL EXAMS! NO HEALTH QUESTIONS!

Through wars, panics, depressions and disasters like the San Francisco earthquake and fire of 1906, Fireman's Fund Insurance Company has stood side-by-side with the people of California, providing sound, sensible and secure insurance coverage. And now The Fund is deeply concerned with a pressing social problem: Many of our state's senior citizens are not able to obtain accident and health insurance. As the largest property-casualty insurance company in the West, Fireman's Fund is doing something about this problem right now, and right here in our home state. Result: The FUND/65 PLAN.

Who May Join This Plan?

The FUND/65 PLAN is created exclusively for all residents of California age 65 or over – regardless of their past or present condition of health. If you will be age 65 or older as of February 1, 1959, and reside in California – you qualify.

Are Medical Examinations Required?

No. The only application you need is the coupon below. You need not take any medical examinations nor answer any health questions. Your protection begins February 1, 1959.

Can The Policy Be Cancelled?

The Fund cannot cancel, modify or raise premium rates unless it does so on all FUND/65 PLAN Policies issued in California. You, however, may terminate on any monthly premium date.

What Are The Benefits?

1. Covers you for all kinds of injuries or illnesses except those caused by war or covered by any Workmen's Compensation or Occupational Disease Law.

2. Pays you up to $10.00 a day room and board for as long as 31 days for each hospital confinement, anywhere in the world. Not covered is confinement in U.S. Veterans Administration hospitals, clinics, and institutions operated primarily as nursing, rest or convalescent homes; and those established primarily for treatment of alcoholics or narcotic addicts.

3. No restriction as to the number of times you are in the hospital for different causes, even if they are separated by only a few days. Confinements for the same or related causes need only be separated by six months to be considered a new accident or sickness.

4. Pays you up to $100.00 allowance each time you are in the hospital as a result of a new accident or sickness for X-ray examinations, operating room, anesthetics (or the cost of administration thereof), laboratory tests, prosthetic devices, dressings, drugs and medicines, and for ambulance service to and from hospital.

5. Surgical schedule covers every type of operation in or out of the hospital, from $5.00 to $200.00. (Example: $5.00 for removal of a toenail; $100.00 for appendectomy; $200.00 for prostate removal.)

6. Pays you benefits immediately for any illness or condition for which you have not been medically treated or advised.

7. Even pays benefits for existing conditions when treatment begins after the Policy has been in effect six months.

What Is The Deadline For Enrollment?

The FUND/65 PLAN is open for a limited time only. You must enroll between now and February 1, 1959. After that date, the door must close and stay closed unless or until the Company elects to re-open enrollment. Don't be shut out.

Who Stands Behind This Policy?

The Fireman's Fund Insurance Company – with its affiliates Home Fire & Marine Insurance Company and National Surety Corporation – is the largest property-casualty stock insurance company in the nation with headquarters in the West. Founded in 1863, The Fund now maintains offices throughout the United States and in Canada. The home office is located in San Francisco. Total assets exceed $400,000,000.

What Does This Protection Cost?

$6.50 a month. The cost is so low because this plan works like "group" insurance. Everyone enrolls at the same time... applications are processed electronically, thereby cutting administrative costs. All Policies take effect on the same date – February 1, 1959.

Can I Collect On Other Policies?

Yes. All other policies you may have, such as Blue Cross, Blue Shield or even another policy with Fireman's Fund or its affiliates, have no bearing on your right to collect benefits from this Policy. The only restriction is one FUND/65 PLAN Policy per person.

How Do I Enroll?

1. Fill out the application blank below.
2. Enclose your check or money order payable to "Fireman's Fund Insurance Company."
3. Mail to: FUND/65 PLAN, Thomas W. Cordry, Jr., Agent, P. O. Box 3053, San Francisco 20, Calif.
4. Your Policy, effective February 1, 1959, will be mailed to you soon.

Give the extra coupon below to a friend or relative. For additional applications, use any piece of paper, but be sure to include all the information requested on coupons below.

Applications will also be accepted from your insurance broker or any agent of Fireman's Fund Insurance Company.

Children Make Reservations For Production Of 'Magic Ring'

Many groups have made reservations for the Saturday production of "Magic Ring" to be presented at the San Rafael High School auditorium.

Opening the winter series of professional plays for children sponsored by Junior Theatre of Marin, this play involves the exciting gods of Richard Wagner's "Ring" operas. Producer and director of the San Francisco Players Guild presentation is Martha Bigelow Eliot of Belvedere.

Among the children to be feted at the 10:30 a.m. performance is Susan Gresch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gresch of San Rafael. Her sixth birthday will be the occasion for a theater party honoring Susan. Young guests will include Betty Maderis, Elaine Ragan, Ruby Fisher, Debby Thornton, Kathy Nay and Master Gary Gresch.

Brownie Troop 160 from the third grade of Brookside School in San Anselmo will also be present at the morning performance. Members are Patsy Brady, Ellen Storz, Cynthia Stoner, Pat Jones, Lynn Demsey, Joan Voigtlander, Yvonne Pryor, Dona Schmitt and Jackie Green. Accompanying the group will be co-leaders Mrs. Thomas L. Demsey Jr. and Mrs. E. T. Stoner.

One of the groups enjoying the 2 p.m, performance will be the birthday party of seven-year-old David Evans of Belvedere. Eleven boys will gather at the home of David's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans, for a luncheon preceding the trip to the theater. Present will be Charles Yates, Thomas Daggett, James Bastian, Andrew Zeisler, John Mayer, Carter Ingram, Bruce McGowan, Michael Hanson, George Froburg, William Mathews and Robert Peterson.

Dorothy Ann Sovig, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Sovig of San Rafael, will celebrate her birthday by inviting Marsha Wagner, Gigi Allison, Dorie Ball, Mary Beth Healy, Sharon Alridge, Roxanne Wright, and Mary Taylor. Also present at luncheon and the play will be Dorothy Ann's sister, Carleen.

Lynne Polach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Polach of Corte Madera, will celebrate her sixth birthday with a cake and all the trimmings after the play. Helping Lynne blow out the candles will be Shelley Blumenthal, Debby Tomasi, "Missy" Voight, Janice Richard, Maria Mezzetta, Pamela Gustafson, Cheryl Zion, Karen Kessler and Dana DeVoto.

The "Woodland" Bluebird troop from the second grade at Laurel Dell School in San Rafael will all be eagerly awaiting the curtain's rise. The girls are Carolisa Lindberg, Debby Carlson, Kathleen Bell, Kathy Smith, Laura Boring, Lena Keener, Pamela Beatty, Robin Fagg, Sally Clark and Valerie Gonterman. Troop leader Mrs. Eric Lindberg will accompany her "Flock."

"Ten guests for her 10th birthday" will be the theme for the luncheon and theater party of Peggy Blackmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Blackmore of Belvedere.

Single tickets will be available, but season tickets, at a monetary saving, are still being sold by area representatives. Any additional reservations should be made with Mrs. Leonard Ward for the morning performance and Mrs. H. G. Marchant for the matinee. Balcony reservations (limited to seventh and eighth graders and up, for this play which holds much of interest for the older child) may be made through Mrs. Alma Vogel.

Dr. Hollis Entertains At Luncheon

Dr. Virgil Hollis, who took office as Marin County superintendent of schools this week, entertained at an inaugural luncheon at Woodlands Restaurant in Kentfield on Monday.

During the campaign for election a group of Larkspur women had attended a coffee party for Dr. Hollis and were disappointed because he was unable to appear and talk to them. So Dr. Hollis invited them to lunch.

Attending were Mrs. Paul Cane, hostess at the original coffee party, and Mesdames Milo Hurley, David E. Scofield, Martin O'Brien, Pauline Frank, Charles Rosse, Louis Melvino, Joseph Land, Jerome Lerner, Herbert Neal and William Larkin of Kent Woodlands. Also attending was Mrs. Newton Wise, campaign manager for Dr. Hollis.

Invited but unable to attend were Mesdames Caesar Caselli, Leonard Hardie, Frank Warner, Paul J. Giavonnoni, Eugene Byrnes Jr., Coye O'Neill, Jack Smoot and Carl Thoelecke.

MARTHA MacHALE'S BETROTHAL TO HARRY LYTTLE JR. TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. William MacHale of Middlebury, Conn., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Martha, to Harry D. Lyttle Jr. The bride-elect, member of one of Marin's oldest and most prominent families, is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Jenkins of San Francisco and Bolinas and niece of Mrs. Parker F. Wood of Woodside and James Jenkins Jr. of Kent Woodlands. Martha is a graduate of St. Margaret's School in Waterbury, Conn., and is in her first year at Colby Junior College in New London, N.H.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Lyttle of Middlebury, is a senior at Providence College in Providence, R.I. and has just been elected to "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." After his graduation in June he will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Infantry. Plans are being made for a wedding in August.

Open Door Club To Hold Ballard Night

Ballard Night will be observed at Open Door Club of Novato tomorrow, with Dr. J. Hudson Ballard speaking on "The Best Is Yet to Be."

Mrs. Glen Tovani, with Mrs. Charles Douglas at the piano, will sing several of Dr. Ballard's favorite hymns.

The evening is being arranged by the club in appreciation of Dr. Ballard's series of lectures on "Psychology and Better Living" which the club sponsored as its gift to the community last November.

The usual potluck supper will be served at 7 o'clock in Trevitt Hall and the program will follow at 8 p.m. The club invites the public and suggests that those who cannot attend the supper come at 8 to hear Dr. Ballard.

Visitors From South

Mr. and Mrs. Renfrew G. Batcheller of Los Angeles spent the holidays with Walter D. Kephart of San Anselmo.

First Spring Looks For 1959 Previewed At Focus Luncheon

Young 1959 rocketed toward a colorful spring on Tuesday when "Fashion Focus," the fashion show luncheon at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, previewed the first new looks for 1959 from Sarrae's of San Rafael to help the many fashion-conscious guests "Start The New Year Right."

With fashionable flair, the Marin Hadassah launched young 1959 to become the first county organization honored in the new "Fashion Focus" series which each Tuesday salutes a different Marin group for its achievements.

For the Marin Hadassah who work to strengthen ties between two democracies, America and Israel, 1959 will see continuing progress toward completion of the Hadassah-Hebrew University Medical Center, vitally important to the progress of democratic Israel.

Hadassah will continue its wonderful work with "Youth Aliyal," the immigration movement begun in 1934, that has brought 85,000 young people from behind enemy lines, concentration camps, ghettos, and given them an opportunity for living and learning through the "Youth Aliyal" vocational education program.

To "Start The New Year Right" on Tuesday, the Hadassah proved why they are noted for their chic and attractiveness as well as for their work at home and abroad. Ten stunning models showed it's so much easier to look lovely in 1959 than it was in 1958 by combining the beauty and brightness of a Sarrae spring fashion with a happy halo of hair styled by Josef and Rex of San Anselmo.

FASHION CAPSULE

For each guest, Marion Bellamy, coordinator of the "Fashion Focus" series, prescribed a 1959 Fashion Capsule: "Take one natural waistline and add one big wide belt. Mix with one classic checked suit, add a touch of the empire in its flattering forms; blend with a bright coat over a gay print dress short, but not too short; balance with a sensational shirtmaker. Blend a rainbow of color, a high choker of pearls, a perky hairdo and a fresh new makeup."

The most disinterested 1958 man will love a large dose of the 1959 Fashion Capsule!

"Start the New Year Right" fashion highlights were:

"The Swim Suit," Rose Marie Reid's "Limited Edition" angelic white brocade sparkling with rhinestones; the sparkler, Mrs. John Levy.

"The Shirtmaker," Fresh and new but still a classic, a Julie Miller confection of orange and white striped on polished cotton; Mrs. Irvin Cohn the model.

"The Jacket," Mrs. Jules Levine sporting an Alphus of New York pearlized leather sapphire jacket, to top a slim wool skirt dyed to match.

"The Separates," Pastel appliques accenting a slim white flannel skirt by Susan Thomas; Mrs. Maurry Koch adding a white twin sweater set blended of lambswool, fur and nylon, hand appliques repeated on the sweaters.

"The Suit Look," a Phyliss de Trano original. The empired sheath dress of silk and cotton pebble tweed with moss green wool jersey bodice; over it an important jacket of pebble tweed just missing the waist of Mrs. Evan Goldenberg.

"The Good Traveler," a sleeveless Arnel classic fly-front silhouette in chalk white, always wearable, packable and easy-to-care-for; to wear with it Mrs. Philander Beadle choosing a navy sweater sparked with red and white trim.

TEXTURED COTTON

"The Cottons," yards and yards of brilliant textured cotton plaided in amber, orange and black; the full skirt and bowed black patent belt showing off the tiny waist of Mrs. H. D. Sokoloff. Over her shoulders sweatered elegance in tangerine angora.

"The Sarrae silk skirt," bright, bold and beautiful red, to contrast brilliantly with a white flannel skirt of Mrs. Howard Cohn.

"The Scene Stealer," for cocktails a Phyliss de Trano design, pure silk print with cherry red roses roaming across leaves of green on a lush green background; the waist empired and tucked with a matching rose; the scene stealer, Mrs. Bernard Savin.

The second special "Fashion Focus" luncheon in the January series will be Tuesday, Jan. 20 when guests will learn to "Be More Beautiful in 1959" with spring looks from Luana's of San Rafael and Corte Madera to be modeled by the Jolly Roger Chapter of the Children's Home Society, Rickey's second honored group of the new year.

Marin Crickets Set Party For Saturday

Marin Crickets' Second Saturday Square Dance Party will be held Saturday at the IOOF Hall in San Rafael from 8 to 12 p.m. Featured caller will be Ed Mills of Livermore, caller for the Hilltoppers.

All square dancers are invited to attend this pre-wedding square dance party, M.C.ed by Mel Bemus, who will give his daughter, Melva, in marriage to Gene Kaysen on Sunday, Jan. 11.

The Mel Bemus family recently purchased the "Top of the World Ranch" in Sonoma County near Glen Ellen. Plans are to make it into a Square Dance Ranch by membership, with swimming, hiking, camping and square dancing facilities available.

Miriam Ham Weds John Marlin Wright

The Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley was the setting for the recent wedding of Miriam Ham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio N. Ham of Mill Valley and John Marlin Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hebert of Mill Valley.

The Rev. Murray Hammond officiated for the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white jersey sheath dress embroidered in white satin and fashioned boat neckline, and short sleeves. Her short veil of illusion was attached to a bandeau of white flowers and seed pearls. She wore a corsage of pink roses and carried an heirloom handkerchief belonging to her mother's family.

Elisabeth Ham was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a sapphire blue jersey sheath dress styled with three quarter sleeves. She had a matching velvet bandeau and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Linda Ham, the bride's sister, and Margaret Ann Gurney of Sacramento, the bridegroom's cousin, were flower girls.

Dennis Barrett of Philadelphia, Pa., and a classmate of the bridegroom's at Cal Tech was best man. Ushers were Wayne Kennedy and Wesley Hildreth, both of Mill Valley.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ham wore a royal blue crepe and satin dress with blue accessories and a yellow rose corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a black suitdress with blue accessories. Her corsage was also of yellow roses.

A reception for 60 guests followed the ceremony in Hammond Hall where arrangements were of pink roses.

The bride was graduated from Tamalpais High School and attended College of Marin. She has been employed as a laboratory technician for Tracerlab in Richmond. In addition to two sisters in the wedding party, the bride has two brothers, David, who is a student at the University of California, and James, at home. Mr. and Mrs. Eardley Ham of Rapid City, S.D., and Otto Hurd also of Rapid City, are her grandparents.

The bridegroom was graduated from Tamalpais High School and is now in his junior year at Cal Tech. Mr. and Mrs. John Collum of Long Beach are his grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Gurney of Sacramento, his uncle and aunt.

The newlyweds will take up their residence at 937 E. California street in Pasadena.

Presbyterian Groups Plan Joint Meet

A combined meeting of the Women's Society, the Vine Trumbull Circle and the Women's Evening Circle is scheduled for Tuesday evening, Jan. 13, at 7:30 o'clock at the San Rafael Presbyterian Church. A dessert and a program will be featured with the Vine Trumbull Circle members the hostesses.

Dr. Mary Van Arsdale of the San Francisco Theological Seminary will speak on her impressions received on her recent trip to the Orient. She will illustrate with colored slides.

Mrs. Gladys Fishel will give the devotions. Special music will be provided.

New officers of the Vine Trumbull Circle are Mrs. B. L. Russell, president; Mrs. Sylvester Fickbohm, devotion chairman; Mrs. Sydney Frank, secretary, and Miss Gretchen Eden, treasurer.

Pianist Lipman Is To Appear Before Sausalito Club, Jan. 15

One of the most outstanding musical artists in San Francisco, Samuel Lipman, will be the guest artist at the Sausalito Women's Club on Thursday, Jan. 15.

Lipman made his piano debut in 1943 at the age of eight. Since then the artist has made appearances with orchestras and in recitals throughout the United States.

Born in San Jose, Sam Lipman has spent most of his life in San Francisco. He was graduated from Washington High School and received his degree in political science from San Francisco State and his master of arts from the University of Calif. While studying for his master's degree in Berkeley, he was an assistant teacher in political science.

Lipman is now devoting his life to his first love, that of music. Now only 23, he already has studied under Lev Shorr, in Europe, and at the Monteux School of Music in Maine. He is presently a pupil of Alexander Libermann and has been acclaimed by critics as a remarkably gifted pianist of imposing ability.

Under the batons of Pierre Manteux, Ferenc Fricsay, Arthur Fiedler, Earl Bernard Murray, Rudolph Ganz and Kurt Adler, he has appeared eight times as piano soloist with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra. Fith Thomas Scherman he has played with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra at Lewisohn Stadium in New York. His performance in 1956 at Town Hall in New York brought him high praise by the New York Times as "One of the most promising talents of the season. He has strikingly natural gifts, refined and polished by an uncommonly broad musical training."

SAMUEL LIPMAN
(F. R. Cummings photo)

In July of this past year, he "gave a grand and fiery account of himself" in his performance with the San Francisco Symphony under Arthur Fiedler. "His performance was both skillful and musical."

Samuel Lipman's program on Thursday will consist of Bach's Italian Concerto, Beethoven's Sonata, opus 13, C Minor (Pathetique), Chopin's Nocturne in F Minor, Etude, opus 25, in C Minor and Ballade, in G Minor, Ravel's Sonatine and Granados' Los Requiebros from Goyescas.

Mrs. Harold Fletcher, music chairman of the Sausalito Woman's Club, and who was present at Lipman's first recital in 1943, will introduce the artist. The program will start a 2:30 p.m. and will be followed by tea under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Knaebel.

Members of the garden section of the Woman's Club are reminded that there will be no meeting of the section as scheduled on Jan. 15, but instead, Mrs. Clayton Mote will give her amusing but informative talk on "It's For the Birds" on Jan. 22.

Rodef Sholom Lists Changes In Meetings

Mrs. Joseph A. Guterman, president of Rodef Sholom Auxiliary, announces a change in meeting dates: board meetings will hereafter be held on the second Monday of each month, and membership meetings on the fourth Monday.

The next board meeting, on Jan. 12 at 10:30 a.m., will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Loewenberg, 30 Corte Mayuga, Greenbrae.

The next membership meeting will take place on Jan. 26, at 11:30 a.m., in the form of a brunch at the Woodlands Restaurant in Kentfield. Reservations must be made in advance with Mrs. Dave Cohn, Sylvan lane, Ross, or Mrs. Abe Blumenfeld, Bayview road, San Rafael.

Of extraordinary interest at this time will be Rabbi Morton Hoffman's book review of the Nobel Prize-winning novel, "Doctor Zhivago" by Boris Pasternak.

Mothers' Club Plans Brunch And Bridge At Lakeside

The first spring event sponsored by the Mothers' Club of the San Rafael Military Academy will be a "Brunch and Bridge" at the Lakeside Golf and Country Club, San Francisco, on Wednesday, Feb. 18.

Members of the Mothers' Club and their guests anticipate a large attendance of Bay Area friends. The affair will start at 11 a.m. and brunch will be followed by bridge, other card games or just plain "visiting."

Mrs. C. E. Neal, president of the Mothers' Club, has announced that Mrs. Howard Good will be chairman of the day, and assisting her on committee will be Mesdames T. N. Brown, John Lesoine, Ernie Heckscher, Charles Daum, Jean Smith, Floyd Gilman, T. E. Bailly Jr., and Lawrence Garrett.

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Norman Paterson and Mrs. Charles Haluska of San Rafael.

Dr. Hildebrand To Address Ross P-TA

An important and pertinent report concerning the work of the state Legislative Committee on the study of education in California will be given by a noted educator and chemist, Dr. Joel H. Hildebrand, at the Tuesday, Jan. 13, meeting of the Ross Grammar School P-TA. Dr. Hildebrand was recently appointed to the committee's Citizens' Advisory Commission.

Dr. Hildebrand, professor ereritus of chemistry and former dean of the college of letters and science at the University of California, will talk on "What Schools Can or Cannot Do for Your Children." He will also delve into the subject of the gifted child and what special efforts should be directed to increased curriculum for the child. His comments will be most opportune as a Ross School committee is now making a study for a later report to the P-TA on "rapid learner" courses conducted in several Marin schools.

Dr. Hildebrand's report will be of enormous interest to all parents and, since he will also discuss the recent charges of the Marin County Grand Jury against the local school system, it is certain not to be dull.

GREENOAKS UNIT DINNER DANCE WILL HAVE VALENTINE THEME

Red and gold hearts and cupids will be the central theme in the decor for the Valentine dinner dance, which the Greenoaks Unit of the Friends of Arequipa will hold Saturday, Feb. 7, at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley. Proceeds of the affair will benefit the Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Mrs. Max Boone, chairman of the Unit has appointed Mrs. Jackson Bennett of Country Club Heights as party chairman. Mrs. Bennett will be assisted by Mesdames Christian Mathew, Cecil Aker, Loren Tuttle, Max Boone, Arthur Duplisea, Harry Koons, Edward Cala and Othello Michetti.

OWC Luncheon Planned Jan. 15

Because of work being done on the Officers' Club kitchen, the Officers' Wives Club of Hamilton Air Force Base have changed the date of the luncheon meeting to Thursday, Jan. 15.

"Winter White" will be the theme for the luncheon meeting which is open to members only.

During the business meeting, the club constitution will be discussed. On the revision committee are Mesdames Thomas L. Hayes, Marvin Good, E. F. Hoover and James L. Roberts.

Mrs. Charles Wells will present the program with a selection of readings.

Club Women Plan Fireside Luncheon

Seven members of St. Hilary's Women's Club will present a fireside luncheon at the Southern Marin Recreation Center on Wednesday, Jan. 14 at 12:30 p.m. Proceeds will benefit the National Council of Catholic Women.

Planning the affair are Mrs. Kelly Wheeler, president of the group and Mesdames Joseph Keller, Cyril McDermott, Joseph D'Angelo, J. L. Bowler, Alexander Smetana and John Jansheski.

Parisian Designers Revive Normal Waist

By NADEANE WALKER

PARIS (AP) — Hemlines and waistlines are coming down for spring 1959. Paris dressmakers are about to rediscover the female form "as God made it," after seasons of fashionable distortions and exaggerations.

This is my impression after talking to some of the high fashion designers, who are already working on their top-secret spring collections, to be unveiled from Jan. 26.

The hemline drop is unlikely to be a radical one, but it will cover the kneecap with a few inches to spare. As for the waistline, it will be back to normal, or nearly so. The high-waisted Empire line was literally run into the ground with the last fall season, when it blanketed not only Paris collections, but those of New York, Rome and London as well.

As Mme. Jeanne Carven, one of the few well-known women designers, puts it, "Skirts can't go any higher without becoming indecent, and waistlines can't climb further without strangling the neck. Besides there is always a change after the extremes have been reached."

With the smiling plea, "let's leave a surprise for January," she readily admits, "I personally am a partisan of the natural female form."

Like an echo, one of this fashion capital's newest designers—and its only South American—Serge Matta, says, "I find most women like their body as God created it."

Chilean Matta, who opened his house only last season, boldly admits, "I don't like the very short skirt as well as I did, and the Empire line is finished. It has already arrived in the streets, and that is fatal."

His private clients, he says, are already ordering form-fitting dresses. Nowadays, he adds, successful new lines are copied in ready-mades right away, instead of the old delay of a year or two — "and that means we must change styles more rapidly."

While the tip-top houses such as Dior and Balenciaga maintain the silence of the grave concerning new collections, straws in the wind indicate longer skirts and lower waistlines will be the majority trend.

Of course this never excludes the rebels who make Paris collections exciting enough to draw buyers from all over the world.

Series Will Begin In Dance Exercise

Classes for women interested in creative dance exercises will start a new term at Carpenter's Hall in San Rafael on Tuesday, Jan. 13 and Thursday, Jan. 15.

Ann Halprin will instruct the Thursday group which meets at 10 a.m. and Simone Morris is in charge of the Tuesday class at 10:15 a.m.

Dance experience is not necessary and anyone wishing more information may call Mrs. Stewart Macondray, general chairman.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Deanna Boitano, James Morgan

White chrysanthemums adorned the altar as Deanna Boitano and James Morgan exchanged vows Sunday afternoon at St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon.

The same flowers were also used on the side altars and with ti leaves in a large standard basket on either side of the main altar.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 3:30 o'clock by the Rev. Thomas Kane of Napa, a friend of the young couple.

When Deanna walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, William Boitano of Mill Valley, she was wearing a ballerina length white satin gown fashioned with fitted bodice of Chantilly lace. It had a scoop neckline and three-quarter sleeves, and the same lace was appliqued on the skirt.

Her elbow length veil was held by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a crescent bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids and white butterfly roses.

Maid of honor was Marian Keegan of Napa, the bride's classmate when both attended the St. Mary's College of Nursing in San Francisco. She wore a full skirted emerald green taffeta dress and a small flowered hat, and her flowers were a crescent of white carnations and leather leaf fern.

The bridegroom's brother, William Morgan Jr., served as best man, and honorary ushers were the bride's brother, William Boitano and Delano Johnson of Napa.

Serving as altar boys were the bride's other brother, James Boitano, and Daniel Oberti of San Francisco.

Mrs. Boitano chose for her daughter's wedding a beige taffeta sheath, and moss green hat trimmed with flowers. She completed her costume with matching green gloves and a green orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a royal blue sheath with jacket, and white hat, and her corsage was a purple orchid.

Following the wedding the newly married pair greeted some 200 guests at the Outdoor Art Clubhouse, which was decorated for the occasion by a family friend, Mrs. Edgar Hensley of Mill Valley.

In the foyer there was a fan spray of white chrysanthemums and stock, and two large wedding bells trimmed with pink camellias were suspended from the ceiling. In the main room a fan spray of the chrysanthemums and stock stood on either side of the stage, and side brackets were decorated with pink camellias.

On the bride's table was a four tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom and encircled at the base with white carnations.

When the bride left for her moneymoon at an undisclosed destination, she was wearing a peacock blue lace sheath with black hat and accessories.

The young couple will live in Napa.

Deanna was graduated from Marin Catholic High School and St. Mary's College of Nursing in San Francisco and will continue her career as a nurse at the Napa State Hospital.

The bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan of Napa, is a graduate of Napa High School and Junior College and is presently employed as a psychiatric technician at the Napa State Hospital.

MAGICIAN SPEAKS

Pseudo-Sciences Denounced By San Rafael Club Speaker

A demonstration of "magic" interspersed with sound philosophy and bits of humor made the program presented by the great magician, de Sousa, on Tuesday afternoon at the San Rafael Improvement Club both entertaining and educational. A charter member of the Society of American Magicians and a graduate of the University of Lisbon, de Sousa has devoted years not only to the art of deception but to study of psychology.

"We all have a craving to believe in something we can't understand," the magician declared and added: "When someone claims supernatural powers that is where danger begins." Astrology is the oldest of the pseudo-sciences and de Sousa stated that no one can foretell the future by "reading" the stars any more than he can by "reading" the palm of the hand ("a chimpanzee has lines on his palm but he doesn't care if he's going to take a trip or receive an important letter"). Numerology and phrenology, the speaker also classes as psuedo-sciences. "In the world of mind reading there is lots of chicanery," the magician stated and he warned, "Never believe in mental telepathy, only the word exists." He spoke of the "pathetic people" who pay money to charlatans in a search for advice or comfort.

The speaker did not discount intuition. "It is a great thing. Women have highly developed intuition but I can't explain it."

"Hypnosis is a science," de Sousa declared, then warned: "The parlor hypnotist is a dangerous man. Do not allow yourself to be hypnotized by anyone who is not qualified to do so." He explained that mental blocks and other damage to the brain can occur unless the hypnotist is a specialist. Of recent years hypnosis is being used in treatment of cases when anaesthetics cannot be used and the results have been highly successful.

De Sousa explaining self-hypnosis, said it is induced by four things: Relaxation, concentration, eye fatigue and monotony. "Reason goes to sleep and the subconscious takes over." He said this is a cause of many highway accidents. He issued another warning: "Don't take drugs which are supposed to keep you awake."

Speaking of "magic" de Sousa said there are three ways of deception: By sight, by sound and by presentation and explained "it is not what you do but how you do it." This he illustrated with the thimble and handkerchief tricks and showed how they are done. Other stunts, when the magician "reads" a license number or the numerals on a dollar bill by supposed thought transference, and tears a newspaper in pieces and in a second has it all in one piece again, de Sousa performed. He did not explain how the tricks were done, thus piquing the curiosity of his audience.

The lecture and magic performance were preceded by a talk by Mrs. Frank A. Schroeder of Corte Madera, past president of the Golden Gate District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, who is now vice president-at-large of Area A. She said the General Federation of Women's Clubs is the largest organization of women in the world; more than 11,000,000 women belong. In its 58 years of existence, Mrs. Schroeder explained the federation has been a leader of forces for the advancement of women, protection of children, civic improvement, education, conservation and reforestation.

Mrs. Lawrence A. Cowen, club president, who presided at the program meeting, announced that the club will have a luncheon and card party on Jan. 26 and that Mrs. W. C. Cornwell and Mrs. Homer Wood are taking reservations, that the club is sponsoring the Fashion Focus luncheon on Feb. 17 at Rickey's Rancho Rafael and that the annual rummage sale will be held on March 21, with Mrs. Albert Chiaroni chairman, and Mrs. Norris Rawles assisting. The meeting was begun with the reading of the collect by Mrs. Kenneth Walkmeister and the salute to the Flag led by Mrs. James Goodale.

Mrs. Alex Bovee was chairman of the committee in charge of the tea which concluded the afternoon. On her committee were Mesdames S. W. Kramer, Frank Cooley, Fleeta Triece, Douglas Godfrey, Joe Petersen, Sydney Frank and Avery McClurg. Mrs. Louis Yuvan had decorated the tea tables at which Mesdames Maynard Redmond, Ernest Kroll, John Breach and Reid De Armond presided.

THE FIRST Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo will be the setting Jan. 17 for the wedding of Jane Susan Spicer of Sleepy Hollow and Robert Clay Lamb of Lakeview, Ore. (Mack photo)

JANE SPICER IS TO WED ROBERT LAMB

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Spicer of Sleepy Hollow have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Jane Susan Spicer, to Robert Clay Lamb of Lakeview, Ore.

The wedding will be an event of Jan. 17 at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo. The Rev. Robert Clapham will officiate for the 3 o'clock ceremony.

Jane was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is in her sophomore year at Oregon State College. Carol K. Spicer is the sister of the bride-elect.

The future benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lamb of Lakeview, is also a student at Oregon State.

American Working Girl Makes Writer's Best-Dressed List

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Nobody asked me, but it's high time that annual lists of best-dressed females included one girl perennially ignored.

She's the American working girl, who manages a maximum of chic on a minimum of cash.

Each year, yours truly is among those 2,500 persons asked by the New York Dress Institute to vote on women we think rate special attention as clothes horses. And each year, some of us faithfully cite the white collar girl. But the results of the campaign have been nil—so far.

Looking over the 1958 list which came out this week, I find it's made up of the usual bluebloods, actresses and others of such substantial means that if they aren't beautifully gowned, they should change couturiers.

Now don't misunderstand. I'm not suggesting that Mrs. Winston Guest doesn't belong. She always looks well turned out, but she also can afford an expensive wardrobe.

Please, dear dress Institute, can't we just one year give a little recognition to Susie Smith, although her clothes come from the budget section of the Bon Ton instead of a Paris salon?

One of those "Best dressed" will spend on one ball gown the equivalent of Susie's whole yearly clothes allowance. But Susie also looks smart, and she's worked harder at it.

You'll see what I mean just by walking along Fifth Avenue in New York, or the main drag of any city anywhere, on a work day. Secretaries, receptionists, clerks, salesgirls—most look as if they just stepped from a bandbox.

They've learned that one basic dress plus a few accessory changes becomes a whole wardrobe; that it costs nothing to keep hosiery seams straight, skirt hems even.

It takes only soap, water and energy to keep blouses, gloves, collars and cuffs immaculate. Susie may dream of a new suit from Balenciaga, but the three-year-old one she bought on sale still looks smart because her "Find" had classic lines. The hat came from a hat bar, but the way she wears it, who could tell it doesn't carry a "name" label inside?

Miss Bemus Gives Details Of Wedding

Melva Bemus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bemus of San Rafael, who will become the bride of Gene Kaysen also of San Rafael on Sunday has completed the details for her wedding.

The ceremony will be performed at the First Baptist Church in San Anselmo with the Rev. Jerald Traeger officiating.

Melva has asked her three sisters to serve as honor attendants. Mrs. Gerald Kaysen of San Rafael will be matron of honor and bridesmaids will be Marla and Myrna Bemus.

Gerald Kaysen will be best man and ushers are Corky McCorkle of Kentfield and Kent Sturgeon of San Francisco.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Odd Fellows Hall in San Rafael.

The bride-elect and the future benedict were the 1957 King and Queen of Hearts.

GOLDEN DAY CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Bichard of San Francisco were honored at a dinner party given in celebration of their golden wedding on Tuesday night in the Venetian Room of the Fairmont Hotel by their son, Charles Bichard, and his daughter, Charlene. Mrs. Bichard is a member of an old Fairfax family.

Mrs. Bichard's sister, Miss Bertina Cane, who was a buyer for many years in Albert's Store, San Rafael, now Macy's, and resided in Fairfax, now makes her home with her sister and brother-in-law.

Mrs. Harold Fisher Will Address Methodist WSCS

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the San Rafael Methodist Church will hold its regular meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 14. Mesdames E. O. Billings, J. E. Siefkas, G. E. Smith, Lucy Watson and Earl Stover will be hostesses for the 12 dessert luncheon. Mrs. Harold Fisher will be the guest speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher have recently returned from Beruit, Lebanon where they have spent five years in visual, audio and radio work.

Fisher will spend his year's leave in post graduate work at the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

Consumer Advocate Should Combat 'Featherbedding'

Among Governor Brown's inaugural proposals was the advocacy of the establishment of a "consumer advocate" who, among other things, would represent the consumer public before various state regulatory agencies.

This has possibilities; although it has always seemed to us that the paid staff of a state regulatory agency had an inherent responsibility to represent the interests of consumers along with the rest of the citizenry. Perhaps it would be more economical and equally effective if the new chief executive were to advise state employees — especially the staffs of regulatory agencies—that they should keep consumer interests in mind when taking action or making recommendations for action.

One situation comes to mind where the consumer's interest can stand better protection and we respectfully suggest that the governor put it toward the top of the list of matters to receive attention.

We refer to "featherbedding" in public utilities.

This matter was brought to mind the other day by the spectacle of three utility employees standing idle on a San Rafael street watching a fourth perform a minor task.

These utilities to which we refer are owned by private capital but they enjoy a legalized monopoly. Their rates are fixed by an agency of state government —to assure a fair profit.

When union demands include new and more flagrant "featherbedding" provisions, public utility management doesn't have the same necessity for resisting that a competitive enterprise has.

A competitive business must remain efficient or be ruined by a competitor who operates more efficiently and therefore can sell for less.

A monopoly doesn't face that competition. And when it is a public utility, its services are essential and hardly something that consumers can do without.

When the utility signs a new labor contract with new and more flagrant "featherbedding" provisions, the utility applies for and almost invariably receives state permission to increase rates "to cover increased labor costs." This means that the consumer public pays the bill for make-work featherbedding.

As we say, Governor Brown should place this high on his list of consumer problems to receive attention and relief.

Marin's Liquid Winters

When the water running in the gutters gurgles, splashes and sucks on its merry race to the wind tossed Bay, we know winter has come to Marin. Winter in Marin is the time when great sheets of nimbus clouds flirt with Tamalpais, often obscuring her.

Rain in our county it not a wishy-washy affair and it often thunders down on our roofs with almost tropical fury. As we all know, floods and slides are not uncommon winter occurrences here. Yet the rains are a source of beauty too.

Despite the violence of the rains, the sun is apt to shine at odd moments, even during a severe storm. When the sun hits the wet trees, the display of sparkling splendor would be the envy of Tiffany's. A chest of precious gems never shone as brilliantly.

Best of all is the promise which the rain brings of green hills, spring flowers and good crops. We like Marin's liquid winters.

Christmas Card Recalls Bounty

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In this era of so many "obligatory" Christmas greetings, one such as you'll find enclosed (reproduced at right) is pretty rare—and perhaps even newsworthy! It comes, surely, straight from the heart of a staunch friend of the "small things that have no words."

And one could wish that the full truth of Christmas might become a living part of our consciousness — reawakening love and compassion toward "all things great and small" — re-establishing a sense of kinship with all life, wherever it may exist.

A joyous New Year to you Sir,

Flamenco Dancing Not Hot Enough To Survive Chilly Marin Winter

FLAMENCO DANCING, as the Spaniards do it, is fine for keeping warm as winter sets in, but not so fine for those who enjoy it vicariously by sitting and sipping light refreshment.

El Rincon Flamenco opened in September at McNear's Barn at the edge of San Pablo Bay east of San Rafael. Daniel and Luisa Maravilla, the young couple behind the venture, discovered the barn was just too cold for the patrons and were forced to close. They hope to find a heated hall in San Francisco.

CERTAIN MARIN boosters trying to get a $10,000 state loan for planning small boat harbors in Marin found Supervisor William D. Fusselman had a number of questions on his mind, one of them being "How many boat owners are there in Marin County?"

The only statistic which could be dredged up on short notice was that two years ago the number of boats assessed in Marin totaled 381.

Of these, 278 were registered to San Francisco owners.

Clyde A. Stevens of San Rafael, speaking for the Marin Development Foundation, told the supervisors that a great many new boat harbors were rising from mud flats between Sacramento and Stockton and by default were getting boats which ought really to be berthed in Marin if it is to live up to its potential as a recreation mecca.

A YOUNG CALIFORNIA Highway Patrol Officer was helping to remove a man killed in a Highway 101 accident from his smashed automobile, which is no pleasant task.

The officer gave a tug and the man's leg came off.

Mercifully for the officer's peace of mind, it turned out to have been an artificial leg.

How Much Of His Program Will Gov. Brown Be Able To Achieve?

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Reactions around the Capitol to Governor Edmund G. Brown's inaugural address were mixed. While most agreed it was a good bit of oratory, the big question is whether or not Brown can produce.

For a good many years, the Legislature has fought the battle of Fair Employment Practices Act, which was the first recommendation in the new governor's list. In view of the Democratic majority in both houses, and the fact that FEPC is a part of the Democratic platform, the concensus seems to be, despite a lot of opposition, that Brown will get this law passed at the 1959 session.

HIS SECOND recommendation, which is the establishment of a Consumers' Advocate to protect the interests of consumers, did not bring forth as much optimism.

The feeling of some business interests on this subject is that if the consumer needs protection, and in some instances he probably does, then it should come from the attorney general's office. Brown himself has regarded the attorney general's office as the protector of the people, and the question is why should another agency be set up to pursue this particular activity?

His third recommendation, the promotion of economic development in California, won some applause.

Fourth, safeguarding workers' rights, was still in a vague state, and Brown plans later to have specific recommendations on labor unions, and labor practices, in view of the defeat of Proposition 18.

THERE WILL BE some opposition to the fifth suggestion, which is increasing social insurance payments and public welfare payments. This comes as a result of the state of the treasury. There will not be much opposition to a minimum wage of $1.25 per hour, which was the sixth recommendation.

Reformation of election practices, the seventh point, is urgently needed, but there undoubtedly will be some opposition to the spending of money for extensive new equipment along the lines of electronic counting.

Promotion of efficiency in government, if it is anything aside from conversation, will merit a lot of support. But observers feel not much can be done along this line without some major overhauls in civil service.

Crime control is always a political issue with which no one can disagree, and on his ninth point, Brown will get much support.

THE TENTH POINT, improving the quality of education, also comes in the field of conversation. Brown says he wants to make California schools the best in the nation, and the educationists, of course, claim it is the best right now. Much, of course, can be done to improve the schools of the state, both as to teaching and physical plants, but with this under the Department of Education, it is debatable as to just how much Brown can accomplish.

Protection of public health, the eleventh point, also is general, but is a subject which needs much more attention now than it has been getting in the past, in view of new dangers in smog and radioactive fall-out.

As an attorney, Brown recognizes the need for improving the administration of justice, which is his twelfth point and his suggestion of an Automobile Accident Commission, to adjudicate cases, is a new wrinkle.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

KEEP THESE VALUES IN SIGHT

The value of a silver dollar was questioned recently when a motorist presented it at a toll bridge near Hartford, Conn.

The collector had never seen one before. Thinking the dollar to be counterfeit, he refused to accept it.

The motorist was determined that his coin be honored and demanded that the skeptical toll-taker check with another collector.

A few minutes later, he returned and, pointing to the other attendant, pleasantly announced, "That fellow over there says they are worth a dollar apiece."

Many values more important than money are either being forgotten or going unrecognized today. If the divine truths upon which freedom rests are ignored for too long or pushed into the background, our whole structure of freedom may collapse.

Help to keep before the public the true and eternal values of human dignity. "Out of sight" often means "out of mind."

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord." (Psalms 32:12)

Give me the courage, O Lord, to be a champion of truth, even when others have forgotten it.

Gout Brings Pain Mainly To Men, Shuns All High-Living Connections

NEW YORK (AP) — Justice has been done at last to several hundred thousand of nature's noblemen in America.

They are the victims of gout.

These men share a recurrent agony that in the past has afflicted such giants of mankind as Alexander the Great, Isaac Newton, Martin Luther, John Calvin, Goethe, Francis Bacon, Guy de Maupassant and Ben Franklin.

The pangs of gout are excruciating. But almost as hard for its victim to bear are the ridicule and lack of sympathy he receives from his so-called friends. They are sure his ailment is a penalty sent from heaven to punish him for living too fast and too loose.

This big lie is struck down formally in a pamphlet "About Gout."

"It has been common belief for centuries that gout was caused by high living — eating rich foods and drinking too much of alcoholic beverages," says the pamphlet. "We now know that 'high living' does not cause gout."

"Gout is a defect in the body's chemistry which frequently leads to an arthritic condition," says the pamphlet. "Gout is never contagious but probably hereditary.

"This metabolic abnormality causes an increase in the amounts of uric acid in the blood and tissues."

The uric acid excess, accumulating in crystalline deposits in cartilage, usually around bone joints, sets up the painful irritation known as gout.

Gout is perhaps as old as mankind itself, and was known to Hippocrates, the father of medicine, four centuries before Christ.

Gout remains one of the most masculine of ailments. No eunuchs and comparatively few women ever get it.

Gout remains largely a medical mystery. Obesity seems to make it worse. No one diet seems to control it, but its victims generally are advised to avoid foods such as sweetbreads, anchovies, sardines, liver, kidney, brains and meat extracts.

When a man gets an attack, he may wish he'd die — but he won't.

Middle Of Road Route Would Be Best Way To Break Filibuster

The debate on changing Senate Rule XXII, which would increase the action power of the majority and decrease the delaying power of the minority, could not come at a better time than right at the opening of Congress.

No major legislation will be ready for at least a month. Important hearings can proceed. There will be ample time for all the arguments to be heard without holding anything up.

All the merit is not on one side in this dispute. The issue sometimes gets blurred because of the tendency to use epithets instead of looking behind the words to see what is really at stake. Filibuster, for example, has become a nasty word with many liberals although the filibuster has been used to protect many liberal causes.

Before arguing what should be done, let's look at the facts.

QUESTION — What does Rule XXII provide?

ANSWER—It provides that there shall be no cutting off debate on any matter unless sixty-six Senators in the new Senate vote to do so.

QUESTION—What is the purpose of this rule?

ANSWER—Its end purpose is to make sure that the will of the majority shall not be lightly and hastily imposed upon the minority. It accomplishes this end by guaranteeing that there can be thorough, exhaustive, and sometimes exhausting debate. It makes sure that the minority shall have ample opportunity to marshal all of its strength, all of its arguments, and to rally public opinion to its side, if possible.

QUESTION — When does exhaustive debate end and filibustering begin?

ANSWER — There is no easy answer to that one. One man's filibuster is another man's debate. Obviously when a Senator begins reading the telephone book or counting the inches to the moon, he is abusing the privilege of nearly-unlimited debate.

I AGREE emphatically with those who believe that the requirement of 66 votes to end debate is excessive and should be reduced, but it seems to me we should think a long time before making it too easy to close off debate. I think that closing off debate by a majority vote would be too easy.

Let us realize that it has not always been Rule XXII, requiring a two-thirds majority of the membership of the Senate, which has stood in the way of stopping a filibuster. A determined minority can usually best a majority in part populated by those giving only lip-service to that majority. That is what has happened more than once when civil rights legislation failed prior to 1957. It has as often been the weak convictions of the majority as it has been Rule XXII which gave the filibuster its strength.

EXTENDED AND exhaustive debate enabled Sen. George Norris to prevent the government from selling Muscle Shoals and enabled Sens. Robert Taft and Claude Pepper to prevent President Truman from drafting striking railway workers into the Army. Extended and exhaustive debate seems to me an invaluable protection for every minority group in the nation, whether political, racial, or color.

What will the Senate do about Rule XXII? It will do one of three things: (1) nothing; (2) reduce the vote required to cut off debate from sixty-six to two-thirds of those present and voting; or (3) permit a simple majority to end debate, perhaps after some time limit.

AMONG THESE three alternatives, I like the middle course.

It will make it less difficult to end debate — but not too easy.

It will make it impossible for Senators to put their vote surreptitiously against ending debate by just absenting themselves from the Senate. It will make them stand up and be counted.

It will permit a moderate reform to be fairly tried before voting anything more sweeping.

Parolee Captured In Store Washroom

Mill Valley police Monday night captured a 17-year-old California youth authority parolee from Sausalito who, they said, had jimmied his way into Del's liquor store at East Blithedale avenue and Camino Alto, broken into the cash register and taken about $28.

Officers William Walsh and Carl Mead found the door ajar. They searched through the store and discovered the youth hiding in the washroom.

Divorcee Seeks Share Of Wealthy Ex-Mate's Estate

A former Marin County woman, who won a divorce here in 1921, tried to reopen the case for a share of the estate of her late millionaire husband.

But Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court ruled yesterday that the property settlement is now in the hands of the Los Angeles Superior Court and is beyond the jurisdiction of Marin County.

Iona Fernstrom hired a Beverly Hills lawyer to ask for a belated division of community property after 38 years. She contends that F. O. Fernstrom, millionaire philanthropist in Swedish-American circles, had amassed a three million dollar fortune since they were divorced in Marin on Sept. 23, 1921. At that time, Mrs. Fernstrom says, she did not know of her husband's exact financial holdings and relied on him to provide for a proper division of community property.

After the divorce, she went to live in Italy. She got $100 per month alimony from her husband. He died in 1956, and only then did she learn of his fabulous wealth, Mrs. Fernstrom contends. She says her husband gave out more than two million dollars in charities since 1921 and left a half million dollar estate at the time of his death, including $450,000 in cash.

Judge Brusatori ruled that the case is outside Marin jurisdiction and denied her request for a division of property.

HALF CENTURY TOGETHER — Mr. and Mrs. Claude Waltermire of Ross, married 50 years ago yesterday, will be honored by their family at a dinner Sunday. They have been Ross residents since 1920. (Independent-Journal photo)

Fete To Honor Waltermires On Anniversary

A half century ago yesterday, Claude Waltermire and Rose Fullerton said their marriage vows in San Francisco.

On Sunday the couple, residents of Southwood avenue in Ross, will be honored by their family at a golden wedding dinner at Little Sweden in Novato.

Claude Waltermire was born in Belmont, where a street is named for his family. His wife is a San Francisco native. They moved to Ross in 1920.

For many years, he was head sampler at the Western Sugar Co. factory in South San Francisco. He retired when the factory was closed about 10 years ago. The garden of their Ross home now is his principal hobby.

Attending the dinner to honor the 50-years-wed couple will be Waltermire's sister, Mrs. Ida Malone, who lives with them; the couple's two sons and daughters-in-law and four grandchildren, all of San Rafael: Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Waltermire and daughter Patty and son Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Waltermire and son Tommy and daughter Barbara.

Norway Storms Kills 6

OSLO (AP) — Officials today counted at least six dead and 40 fishing boats sunk or damaged after a two-day storm along Norway's far north Finmark coast. One fishing boat was still missing.

The gale ended yesterday but continuing snow cut visibility to 100 yards.

3 Die In Bombardment

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The heavy Communist bombardment of the Quemoy Islands yesterday killed three civilians and wounded four, the Chinese Nationalist Defense reported.

The ministry said the Reds fired 33,401 shells from the mainland, most of them during a four-hour period, and said the Communists were deliberately trying to hit civilians.

Correspondent Expelled

PARIS (AP)—Amelia Aragon, correspondent for Time and Life magazines in Casablanca, was expelled yesterday from Morocco.

Officials of the magazines in Paris said the expulsion followed publication of an article on the Riff uprising. She had helped prepare the article.

Eva Loses Bracelet

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Actress Eva Gabor lost a $25,000 diamond bracelet here last weekend, police reported yesterday.

Officers said Miss Gabor and her mother, Jolie, spent the New Year's weekend in a fashionable resort hotel. She missed the bracelet during a party at the Eden Roc hotel.

Russ Deny Uprising

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Tass News Agency last night denied reports of uprisings in Mongolia and their suppression by Soviet troops.

Tass said the reports appeared in New Zealand papers and were based on a statement by a Nationalist Chinese government official. It called the reports a "crude invention" and "foul slander."

Drinking Water Fouled

NORTH TONAWANDA, N.Y. (AP)—The 25,000 residents of this city in western New York state boiled their drinking water today after ice sludge in the Niagara River blocked the main water system intake.

Schools were closed and many business establishments curtailed operations when Mayor John F. Kopczynski declared a state of emergency yesterday.

Engineers were attempting to melt the ice sludge and last night had restored water pressure to about two-thirds of normal.

Crowds Cheer Michiko

TATEBAYASHI, Japan (UPI)—This city of 60,000 gave a wild welcome today to a hometown girl who has become the national idol, the next empress of Japan.

Michiko Shoda, the attractive daughter of a flour mill executive, returned to her home town of Tatebayashi today for the first time since the announcement last November of her engagement to Crown Prince Akihito.

Four thousand persons, including teachers and classmates of the local primary school which Miss Shoda attended, greeted her at the railway station and crowds lined the streets to the home of her uncle, Buneimon Shoda.

Hawaii Vote Predicted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) predicted today that the new 86th Congress will grant statehood to Hawaii.

Jackson, chairman of an Interior Subcommittee on Territories, said Alaskan statehood paved the way for Hawaii and "the make-up of the new Congress strengthens the outlook."

He said he would join in sponsoring a Hawaii statehood bill identical to the one approved by the committee last year. He said hearings on the measure should be relatively brief because "the facts are well-established."

Medals For Mothers

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet parliament awarded the order of "Mother Heroine" to 239 women last month. To be eligible, a mother must have at least 10 children.

Fire Kills 56 Animals

NEW YORK (AP)—Fire swept a one-story building at an animal farm today, burning 56 animals to death.

At least 40 monkeys died in the flames on the two-acre Ruhe farm which supplies animals to zoos throughout the world.

Cliburn Halts Tour

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Van Cliburn and his Tucson dentist have confirmed that dental work has interrupted the Texas pianist's concert tour. The dentist, who declined use of his name, said the treatment was necessary and Cliburn "should be left alone to have it done."

Guide Dogs For Blind Annual Meeting Monday

Annual meeting of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., will be held at 11 a.m., Monday, at the Guide Dogs training center on Los Ranchitos road, San Rafael with all contributors invited to participate for the first time in the organization's history.

Three-minute reports will be made by M. J. Micheletti on finances, Clarence J. Pfaffenberger on research, Mrs. Jerry Walker on students trained by the organization and Dora Perry on publicity.

After a buffet luncheon there will be a preview showing of "The San Rafael Story," educational film depicting how blind students and their dogs are trained at the local school.

Robert H. Schnacke, president of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., has invited persons who have contributed to the organization during the past year. More than 100 have accepted.

Micheletti, San Francisco resident and Bank of America executive, will replace E. O. Boyer on the Guide Dogs board.

Newcomers on the organization's advisory board are Mrs. Pierpont M. Hamilton of Santa Barbara, Mrs. Albert G. Raisch of San Francisco and Mrs. Julie Kay Rifkin of Sacramento.

Principals To Become 'Statistics' In Survey

Five San Rafael elementary school principals will be converted into statistics next week as they are tested, rated and interviewed to find out what makes a good elementary school principal.

The five volunteers, somewhat cajoled into the undertaking by Supt. Frank L. Lucas, are Hamer White of Davidson School, Larry Geiger of Santa Venita School, Harold Delma of McPhail School, Edwina Cordoni of Sun Valley and West End schools and William Sewell of Short and E Street schools.

The San Rafael principals will undergo the first tests Jan. 14 and 15 in Berkeley, along with principals from Berkeley, Modesto and Mt. Diablo schools. The next week they will convene at Sonoma Mission Inn for more testing.

The tests, plus rating by their superintendents and by the teachers who teach under them, will attempt to evaluate the way they have done their jobs as principals.

The project, involving 400 principals in different parts of the United States, is sponsored by 35 universities.

Results of the study will be compiled a year from now, according to Robert B. Howsam, assistant professor of education at University of California.

Greyhound Honors 6 County Residents On Driving Records

Western Greyhound Lines today announced honors to six Marin County residents who have driven Greyhound buses for 10 years or longer without accident.

Gale C. Woodall of 2 Hamilton court, San Rafael, was presented an award for 15 years of accident-free driving. In those years, the company estimated, he has driven buses some 425,000 miles.

Five others received 10-year awards: Clifford B. Bell, 49 Harte avenue, San Rafael, Eugene G. Reiman, 512 Fifth avenue, San Rafael; Robert A. Schneider, 23 Millwood avenue, Mill Valley; Joseph P. Bridges, 88 Montford avenue, Mill Valley, and Darrell S. Richards, 83 Florence avenue, San Anselmo.

Woodall, Bell, Reiman and Richards drive between San Rafael and San Francisco in daily commuter service. Schneider and Bridges serve on the Mill Valley-San Francisco route.

New Mill Valley Brochure Planned

Directors of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce yesterday authorized member T. F. Collison to prepare a layout and cost estimaes for a new brochure to publicize Mill Valley.

Supplies of the old brochure, prepared two years ago, have been exhausted.

Directors heard a talk by Dr. Harold K. Graves, president of the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, in which he outlined the status and objectives of the new multi-million-dollar seminary plant under construction on Strawberry Point.

Grocer Saves Lad Drowning In Hole

SAN JOSE (AP)—A 6-year-old boy who fell into a rain-filled 15-foot hole was saved from drowning Wednesday by the owner of a nearby market.

Billy Pickens had fallen into the hole and sunk from view when grocer Don R. Bush dived into the water fully clothed.

Teen-agers formed a human chain to pull Bush and the boy out.

The hole is a freeway excavation project.

Drum-Bugle Corps Meets Tomorrow

Sea Point Parlor 158 Drum and Bugle Corps, sponsored by Sausalito Native Sons, will hold its first meeting of 1959 tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Bee Street Hall, Sausalito, announced Edward Madsen, bugle sergeant.

The group meets each Friday evening.

Graduates Earn Scholarship Award For San Rafael High

Ten San Rafael High School graduates who were University of California freshmen during 1957-58 have earned an award of merit for their high school.

The 10—eight at Berkeley, one at Davis and one at the Riverside campus—all achieved a grade average of 2.65 or better. (A 3.0 average equals a B).

The award is the first such received at San Rafael High School since the University of California started giving them in 1940. Presentation of the award is planned for Public Schools Week.

One other Marin High School, Sir Francis Drake in San Anselmo, received a similar award. Drake High School was among schools with 20 to 39 entering freshmen at the University of California during 1957-58. San Rafael High School was in a different category: schools with 10 to 19 entrants.

Tiburon Firemen Install Saturday

New officers of the Tiburon Volunteer Firemen's Assn. will be installed Saturday night in ceremonies following the group's dinner for members and wives at 7 p.m. in the Tiburon boulevard firehouse.

Outgoing president Randolph J. Esplin is chairman of the event, to be held for the first time in the firehouse. Charles Pruett is assisting with arrangements.

Officers to be installed are Ray F. Coombes, president; Aldo De Tomasi, vice president; Edward Parnell, secretary; Robert Williams, treasurer, and Charles Pastori Sr., sergeant at arms.

TOO TINY TO LIVE — Lorna Hazelwood, once called too tiny to live, prepares to make short work of her birthday cake as she began her second year of life—a plump, healthy 17-pounder. She was born 100 days premature; so fragile she couldn't be weighed. At 10 days she scaled just 1 pound, 8 ounces. (AP Wirephoto)

One-In-A-Million Baby Celebrates 1st Birthday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—She's a one-in-a-million baby.

That's the chance for life that doctors gave her when she was born.

But Lorna Luverne Hazelwood started her second year of life today, a plump, healthy 17-pounder.

She was born 100 days prematurely, so fragile that she couldn't be weighed. At 10 days she scaled just 1 pound 8 ounces.

She was nourished by transfusions and formula meals from an eyedropper.

Doctors say that in five or six years she will catch up in size to children of normal term birth.

On Lorna's first birthday yesterday, her mother, Mrs. Howard Hazelwood, cuddled her and said:

"My husband is missing a lot, not being here. He was washing some clothes for me, caught his hand in the wringer, and so he's in the hospital. But he knows one thing—the name he picked for our child was the right one.

"Know what 'Lorna' means? " 'Symbol of victory'."

15 Children, Adult Perish In Oklahoma House Fire

BOSWELL, Okla. (AP)—Fifteen children and an adult died today in a roaring fire in a four-room wooden home.

All the bodies except that of one child were piled on and around a bed in a rear room which had no outside door.

Apparently someone pushed the one child out a window but the child was dead.

The victims were Sara Gardner, 38; her 10 children; three orphaned nieces; and two visiting nephews from Oklahoma City.

All the victims were Negroes.

Booker Gardner, the father, had been away hunting.

Almost in shock and his face haggard, Gardner, a Negro, walked about aimlessly, apparently unable to comprehend immediately the disaster which struck his family.

He said that when he started home from his hunting trip before dawn this morning, "I felt sorta funny."

He received the news at the farm home of Vernon Love, who drove him to the disaster scene.

Gardner is a day laborer in this southern Oklahoma town of about 1,000 population.

The volunteer fire department could only use a pumper truck because no hydrant was within usable distance.

Constable J. B. Richburg said the roof had collapsed before firemen arrived.

Gardner said when he left for his hunting trip, two stoves, burning wood, were in use. Richburg said he believed the disaster was caused by the stoves. He said the family apparently panicked when the fire was discovered and ran into one room.

Marinite Moves Up In Loomis Service

Ivan Hayes of 15 Mountain View avenue, Mill Valley, has been named Northern California division operating manager for Loomis Armored Car Service, with headquarters in San Francisco.

For three years Hayes has been manager of the Loomis-operated Sansome Street Garage in San Francisco. He will supervise the garage along with his new duties of overseeing operation and maintenance of the big steel-clad money trucks.

Hayes has been active in Mill Valley Little League affairs, serving as coach of the Realtors team in 1957, manager in 1958 and National League president this year.

'WORDS NOT REALITY'

Generalities In Talk Hint Of Social Maladjustment

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — Like to talk in generalities? That's okay if you don't believe them —otherwise it may be an indication of social maladjustment.

That's the conclusion of Dr. Watler F. Johnson, education professor at Michigan State and president of the American Personnel and Guidance Assn. His findings recently were announced by Michigan State and Arizona State.

He said a language test devised to indicate social adjustment contained 100 statements with such phrases as:

"Iron is strong. A circle is round. A leaf is green. Humans can talk. A boy who never lies is good. Women are mothers."

If you believe all these statements are "always true," Dr. Johnson said, then you may be maladjusted. He explained:

Both a normal and maladjusted person might say, "The salesmen in that store are always terrible" when it might be more correct to say, "The salesman in that store's hardware department acted rudely Saturday morning."

However, he added, the adjusted person would realize he was stating a generality.

The test, devised by Dr. Thomas M. Weiss, assistant professor of education at Arizona State, recently was given to 409 teenagers in detention homes and 494 high school students in Michigan. It was repeated in other detention homes, high schools and a state mental hospital in Michigan. The results:

A significantly higher proportion in the "maladjusted group" answered "always true" to generalizations in the test.

The tests are based on theories of Alfred Korzybski, a language expert who maintains "words are not reality." He claims language has about the same relationship to reality as a map to the terrain it represents.

Johnson said language experts believe most normal persons have some awareness of weaknesses in language structure but persons who don't have the awareness come to "wrong" conclusions and show evidence of maladjustment.

Fairfax Man Rewarded For Army Suggestions

Two Army suggestion awards have been presented to Lloyd V. Robertson of 57 Taylor drive, Fairfax, a civilian guard at the Fort Mason piers. Robertson has been an Army employee 11 years.

For suggesting relocation of a safe-smoking zone in the pier area, Robertson was given a certificate and a $10 check. A second certificate followed his recommendation for the more economical use of printed forms used by his employing unit, the security division.

PT&T Unions Prepare For Pay Pact Talk

Presidents of Communications Workers of America locals representing 1,900 employees of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in Northern California and Nevada will meet Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Richelieu Hotel in San Francisco to map new wage demands, John Linch of San Rafael, president of Local 9404, announced today.

The union's contract with PT&T expires Feb. 28. Negotiations are to open Jan. 19.

Linch, who will represent the 400-member Local 9404 which covers the San Rafael area, said a general wage increase will be sought.

Sausalito 'Bait Shop' Moving To Waldo Point

The Sausalito Boat and Tackle Shop is in the process of occupying its new home at Waldo Point at the Marin City Junction.

Operated for six years by Al, Florence and Richard Urbais, the shop formerly occupied the ground floor of the old Sausalito Yacht Club building, now utilized by the Ondine Restaurant. Last year it moved to a location opposite its former spot until the new quarters could be constructed.

Known to many as "the Bait Shop," the store will not only rent tackle and sell bait, but will have a small boat launching ramp and will have fresh crabs and salmon in season.

"One of our most important features," Richard Urbais said, "is our provision of acres of free parking space. In addition, we plan to expand our sport-fishing operation with more boats and more convenient facilities."

The structure, designed by Oakland architect Robert L. Lustig, utilizes an unusual trough deck roof arrangement which forms a fluted interior appearance.

The new structure is the first on the George Kappas yacht harbor which will ultimately have berthing space for upward of 1,500 boats, with a marine service station, a restaurant and almost a mile of free beach and dock fishing facilities.

Road Death Leads To Suits For $100,000

Accident damage suits for $100,000 were filed this week in Marin Superior Court for the death of one woman and injuries to another at Alto last February.

Mrs. Eva Mass, 58, of 190 Coleman drive, San Rafael, died in a crash on Highway 101 at Alto last Feb. 19. Mrs. Pauline Fish, 34, daughter of Mrs. Mass suffered serious injuries, including fractured pelvis and ribs. Victor Jacob Fish was driving the car.

Jacob Mass, husband of the dead woman, seeks $50,000 for her death. He charges that both Fish and Mrs. Mabel Thomas of San Francisco, driver of the other car, were negligent.

The southbound Fish car, allegedly had tried to stop behind traffic congested because floods had narrowed the highway to one lane. The car swerved, and crashed head-on with that driven by Mrs. Thomas.

Mrs. Fish seeks $50,000 for her injuries. She charges Mrs. Thomas with negligence.

Puerto Lane Opening Delayed By Storms

Storm-caused delays in painting white stripes and installing a guard rail have again forced the state Division of Highways to postpone opening of a new southbound freeway lane on Highway 101 over Puerto Suello Hill, north of San Rafael.

The lane may be opened tomorrow, weather permitting, a division spokesman said today.

Marin City Population Is Half Original 6,000

Marin City's population, which was about 4,300 in 1955, has dropped to slightly less than 3,000 because of the gradual demolition of buildings and voluntary movement of residents out of the wartime housing project.

One hundred seven buildings have been torn down in the low rent area on the south side of Marin City, according to Sidney Rapp, general housing manager. Most of the occupants were relocated in other vacant units in Marin City. "It was a smooth operation, even smoother than we had anticipated," said Rapp. There were no forced evacuations because all residents cooperated, he added.

Rapp estimated the population of Marin City at its height was about 6,000, which means it is now down to about half its original size.

Eviction notices are filed each month in Marin Municipal Court for those who fail to keep up regular rent payments. About 50 complaints are filed each month, but only about 10 court orders are issued each month for eviction, and of these almost 99 per cent pay up before they are actually ousted.

Next in line to be demolished are two small sections involving 31 buildings. One is back of the commercial area, and the other in the hills behind the administration building. But no timetable has been set for the demolition of these sections, Rapp said.

Officer Induction Planned At Ball

Carl Mead of Mill Valley Police will be installed president of the Marin County Peace Officers Assn. at a dinner-dance Jan. 24 in Sausalito's Portuguese Hall.

Tickets are available at the sheriff's office and the various police departments. The installation dinner-dance will start at 7:30 p. m. at the IDESST Hall on Caledonia street in Sausalito.

Outgoing president is new Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos. New officers include President Mead; John Flor of Larkspur, first vice president; Earl Cummesky of the sheriff's office, second vice president, and William Porter of the California Highway Patrol, secretary-treasurer.

College Students To Elect Officers

Campaign speeches were the order of the morning yesterday at College of Marin when candidates for student body offices presented their platforms.

Elections are set for tomorrow and Monday 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., at the stone bench on the campus. Students will choose their student body officers for the 1959 spring semester from the following candidates: president, Victor Stewart, Don Allison and Charles Emmons; secretary, Thea Bama and Lynn Ekersley; treasurer, Barbara Roach and Gary Upton.

Installation of new officers and presentation of awards to retiring officers will take place Jan. 14, at an installation assembly in Room 96 at 11 a.m. Athletic, drama and music awards will be presented by Harry Pieper, Frederick Thon and Thomas Chesnut.

Corte Madera Talk Urged By Larkspur

The Larkspur committee to study merger have decided to cancel future meetings until joint sessions can be scheduled with the Corte Madera committee.

Dr. Thurlow C. Jaegeling, chairman, said his committee is "nearly stymied" until joint sessions are arranged.

The Corte Madera group this week devoted a two-hour meeting to discussion of sanitation problems connected with merger.

Phil Arnone, chairman, said joint sessions were not discussed. The committee will meet again at 7:30 p.m. Monday to continue study, he said.

How To Help Children's Grades Without Doing Their Homework

Do your elementary school youngsters get good grades? Here are some ways to help them. Read this carefully. The suggestions are important.

Get them library cards. Have them use them. There's nothing which helps reading at school quite as much as reading for fun at home. Children's magazines are good too.

Buy them a real dictionary. Encourage the "dictionary habit." Get a good children's encyclopedia. Teach them to use it. Such things don't help 6 or 7-year-olds. They'll be valuable to most any child over 8 or 9.

Get your children to do their own arithmetic when they buy things at the store. Have them take their own measurements when they're building things at home. Little ones can't take measurements or do arithmetic very well. But older ones can. If they use the skills they learn at school they remember them.

Reward them for writing letters. Letters to friends, relatives, or foreign pen pals. Have them write thank you notes, and their own invitations. They'll enjoy getting replies in the mail, and reading them.

Play games with them. Word games, geography games, numbers games. Games are nice in the car on long trips. They're fun around the dinner table too. You can make up different games as you go along. Be fair, so the children have an equal chance to win. They'll love it. And they'll remember most of what they learn while playing.

READERS FORUM

Mrs. R. F. "Should elementary school teachers give regular homework assignments to their pupils?"

Reply. Homework is needed by a few pupils, especially those who have been absent. However, it is unwise for most elementary school kids. Dozens of research studies agree that elementary children should do their studying at school under the teachers' watchful eyes. That way they don't memorize mistakes.

Redwood High Gets Certificate Of Completion

Redwood High School was officially declared completed last night.

The Tamalpais Union High School District board of trustees certified completion in a memorandum to the state Division of Architecture, which will make a final inspection.

The board also certified completion of installation of bleachers in the Redwood High gym.

RAILROAD MATTER

The four members present at the meeting in the new administration building at Redwood High agreed to have Chairman Howard I. McGill represent the high school district at a meeting with the Mill Valley City Council regarding the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right of way. Mill Valley seeks a portion of the right of way for straightening a proposed extension of Miller avenue. The high school district owns reversionary rights to the strip, which has been abandoned by the railroad.

However, McGill, noting that Mill Valley and Marin County plan to share the cost of removing the rails from the now-unused roadbed, declared: "I don't think the taxpayers of Mill Valley should have to pay a penny for that." Unless the contract under which Northwestern Pacific originally obtained use of the right of way differs from virtually all other railroad contracts, he said, it contains a provision that NWP must remove the rails itself when it abandons the line.

OFFICERS SPEAK

The board heard student body officers of Tamalpais High School describe their duties and report on student government activities. Telling their stories well were student president Tim Farrell, vice president Mike Groves, secretary Jane Herman and treasurer Ann Goldblatt.

The trustees also:

1. Approved payment of bills totaling $213,764.
2. Accepted donations of books for the Tamalpais High School library from Glidden Benefield, a teacher at the school, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon F. Jones of 54 Loring drive, Mill Valley.
3. Released John Cassity as inspector on the Redwood High School sewer project, to take a fulltime inspection job elsewhere, and hired A. H. Siemer as inspector for the remainder of the project, at a fee not to exceed $300.

Trustee W. B. Lewis was absent because of illness.

Mill Valley Adopts Zoning Law Revisions

The Mill Valley City Council last night unanimously adopted a series of revisions to its zoning ordinance, but not before architect Michael Wornum, who is also a member of the city's architectural advisory committee, objected vigorously to some of the provisions.

"The proposal covering setbacks seems to operate on the theory that if a five-foot side setback is good, then a 10-foot setback should be twice as good," he complained. Wornum argued that in Mill Valley's generally hilly topography, the setback requirements might prove a hardship.

"Basically," Wornum protested, "I feel that the provisions are too severe, both for density regulations and lot usage."

He contended that individual cases of topography should enter the picture rather than prescribing a blanket regulation. He also objected to a provision that parking spaces for commercial units must be not less than 10 by 20. He sand that was too large.

"Parking requirements," he declared, "are becoming more important than amenities for people. Perhaps this should be more flexible and put up to the planning technician in each case."

Besides unanimously adopting the zoning amendments, he council:

1. Read a commendation to the police department from former Councilman T. J. DeLasaux for its speed in apprehending a burglar at DeLasaux' liquor store Monday night.
2. Was told by Normand Black that a citizen committee will report next week on plans for development and beautification of Miller avenue, including planting strips.
3. Approved appointment by Mayor Robert D. Huber of Robert N. Royston as a member of the architectiral advisory sub-committee, succeeding A. B. Costigan, resigned.
4. Agreed to present to the county board of supervisors a suggestion that county-wide inter-city-district fire protection plans be developed to cover areas outside of cities and established fire districts.

School Dorm Perils Liquor Store Sites

STANFORD (UPI) — The addition of a new dormitory to the Stanford University campus will expand the school's facilities—but it may put several liquor store operators out of business.

Jerry O'Brien, state liquor control officer at San Jose, warned six liquor stores, bars and grocery stores yesterday. They may have to give up their liquor licenses because the law forbids sale of whisky within a mile and a half of a college campus.

The new dormitory, a one-million dollar structure for married students, will be built on Stanford avenue and will extend the school's present boundary by four blocks to the south.

All of the threatened business establishments are on El Camino Real.

Novato Firemen Set Record, Answer 334 Calls In Year

Novato firemen answered 334 calls during 1958, the largest number in the history of the Novato Fire District, reported Chief George J. Cavallero today. The previous year, 318 calls were answered.

Two spectacular fires, the Simmons building on Grant avenue in May and the Burdell School in November, helped bring the total fire loss estimate to $91,200, the highest loss in seven years, Cavallero said.

The district's firefighters coped with 123 grass fires during the year—a year which saw the longest fire season on record, from May 20 to Dec. 24. There were eight structural fires, 25 automobile fires and 17 resuscitator calls during the year.

A total of 1,594 fire permits were issued in 1958, compared to 1,093 the year before. Permits for barbecue burning rose from 361 in 1957 to 484 in 1958, the chief reported.

The year saw completion of the district's second fire station. The $48,000 building on a South Novato boulevard site was put into service June 15. Five new firemen were hired and trained during the year, bringing to 12 the number of full-time firemen. There also are 21 volunteer firemen and two part-time regular firemen serving the district.

A new four-wheel drive, 1,000-gallon pumper fire truck, was purchased late last year at a cost of $22,734, the eighth piece of rolling stock owned by the district.

2 Airmen Face Trial In Ignacio Robbery

Two Hamilton Air Force Base airmen, suspected of robbing an Ignacio liquor store New Year's Day, were bound over to Marin Superior Court after a preliminary hearing yesterday.

A/Basic Glenn Dale McCormick, 31, and A/Basic James Ernest Rogers, 22, appeared before Judge Richard M. Sims in Marin Municipal Court. The judge decided there is enough evidence to hold the pair for trial.

The airmen were accused of robbing Al's Liquor Store in Ignacio about 9:50 p.m. Jan. 1. McCormick is suspected as the bandit who took $107, while Rogers is believed to have served as lookout.

Carquinez Project To Begin 2nd Phase

VALLEJO (UPI)—Construction of the Benecia-Martinez bridge, second phase of the Carquinez project, may begin late this month, according to a state official.

Project Engineer Leonard C. Hollister said yesterday construction would get underway as soon as the Department of Defense approves a freeway route through the Benecia arsenal and that state toll bridge authority approves the sale of bonds for the project.

Hollister said it was hoped both actions would be completed this month.

Construction of the bridge will cost about 23 million dollars, with another 10 million dollars to be spent on approaches.

The first phase of the Carquinez project, the new Carquinez bridge on Highway 40, was opened Nov. 25.

Meeting To Air School Merger

The question of whether Novato and San Jose School Districts should unify at a special election next Tuesday will be discussed at a public meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the Novato High School library.

The meeting, called by the Novato Advisory Council on Education, will include a report by the San Jose-Novato unification fact-finding committee, said Dr. Lawrence Witter, advisory council spokesman.

The council also plans to mail a report by the fact-finding committee to residents of both districts, according to Fred Pechner, committee member. The mailing will include letters by superintendents of both districts, he said.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

HERE'S A LITTLE BROTHER THAT'S REALLY MISSING

CARTHAGE, Mo. (AP)—Neoma Gorman answered a knock at her door and found 7-year-old Everett Stark looking for help.

Everett said he had lost his little brother.

Lt. Carroll Maxwell answered Mrs. Gorman's call to police. He took Everett home, four blocks away, to report the disappearance of little brother to the parents before starting the search.

But the boy's father, Ellis Stark, wouldn't hear of a search being made.

Everett doesn't have a little brother.

Larkspur Planners Name Eason Chief

S. W. (Bud) Eason was elected chairman of the Larkspur Planning Commission Tuesday succeeding Price J. Hall. New vice chairman is Vaughn M. Marker.

Secretary Marguerite Korff said the commission set over to its March 3 meeting final decision on rezoning of the Roger F. Sohner property near the proposed Bon Air road extension. Plans are to allow commercial zoning on one corner of the property and business and professional for the remainder. The commission did not act last night because Larkspur zoning ordinances do not provide for business and professional zoning.

Public hearing on the proposed new zoning ordinance was set for Jan. 20.

Reservations may be made with George Washburn, secretary of the chamber, or at the Christensen Insurance Co. office. Deadline for reservations is Jan. 14.

Jockey Demers Fined For Drunken Driving

Richard Arthur Demers, 23, of Pleasanton, who is training to be a race horse jockey, was fined yesterday for his first drunken driving offense.

Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court fined Demers a total of $250 fine for drunken driving, leaving the scene of an accident, and resisting arrest. He also ordered one year's probation. Demers was caught on Summit avenue in Mill Valley last Monday after a two-car collision.

Bird Shelter Display Slated At Inverness

Ernest Muller of Tuolomne will display bird shelters carved from natural tree trunks and limbs at a meeting of District 7-A of the Garden Clubs of California next Wednesday at Inverness.

District 7-A comprises Marin garden clubs.

The meeting will start with a noon luncheon in Frick Hall of St. Columba's Church. Muller's talk and display will follow.

MARIN AUTO SALESMEN—
Why Commute to the Big City?
When you can do as well or better right here in Marin Co. We are Marin's oldest established FORD DEALER and have two unusual openings for the right men. First, I want a good combination salesman to sell new Fords, Hillmans, used cars and trucks. Secondly, I want an experienced man to become Manager of our branch operation. This second man, in effect, will be in business for himself using our capital and established facilities. Prefer men with Ford experience, but not entirely necessary. "Floaters," "Drifters" and Floor Time Charlies" would not like to work for us—so please do not apply. We offer a genuine opportunity to sell "The World's Most Beautifully Proportioned Cars." YOU'LL NEVER BELIEVE IT!!
This is the most unusual and delightful house you've ever seen —originally designed and built by a prominent architect—it has a world of charm. Magnificent country-like setting with complete privacy, yet—and here is the part that's hard to believe—it's only 1 block from Drake Blvd. in San Anselmo. Has 2 bedrooms, 1½ baths, pretty yellow ceramic tile in the kitchen and a brand new deluxe range with rotisserie. TWO FIREPLACES, attached garage, wide-frontage LEVEL site. This is not a "family home" but a real gem if you are seeking a house that is appealingly different.

Farm Hand Admits Killing Hitchhiker; Didn't Like Teasing

FRESNO (UPI) — Authorities said today a young ranch worker admitted he shot and killed a hitchhiker in western Fresno County because the victim kidded him about his "ladylike" ways.

Phillip Holloway, 19, confessed the slaying of Robert Miller, 20, of Barstow, after being questioned for three hours last night. Holloway claimed Miller made improper advances and forced him to commit an immoral act.

Ventura County officers were to question Holloway today about an unsolved slaying of a 17-year-old hitchhiker there Nov. 10. They said Holloway's gun and automobile were similar to those involved in the slaying.

The bullet-riddled body of Miller was found Tuesday night alongside Old Highway 33 four miles south of Coalinga. He had been shot at least six times.

A Christmas boast led to Holloway's arrest late yesterday while he was driving a tractor on the family ranch in the Huron area. A friend told sheriff's deputies he had bragged about a .25 caliber pistol he obtained during the holidays.

City Fails To Stop Church Bingo Game

NEW YORK (AP) — A bingo game sponsored by a Bronx church went on as scheduled yesterday despite the serving of a license suspension summons while the game was in progress.

The Church of the Holy Resurrection, the first group in the city to get a bingo license under a new state law that became effective here Jan. 1, was the first to suffer license suspension.

DISTURBING DAY

It proved a disturbing Christmas Day for the church, whose Ukrainian Orthodox congregation was celebrating the holiday under their ancient calendar.

The license suspension stemmed from a bingo game conducted under auspices of the church last summer. During that game three women won $1,000. They complained they never received the money.

Church officials said the lay operator of that game was responsible for nonpayment, not the church.

SUMMONS ISSUED

As the bingo session got under way yesterday, Edward Doyle, assistant license commissioner, attempted to hand the summons to Rev. Walter M. Propheta, dean of priests at the church.

Rev. Propheta ignored the summons, and Doyle placed it on the clergyman's knees. It was brushed to the floor.

Official action against the church had been taken Tuesday night. The summons calls for the clergymen to appear in Magistrate's Court Jan. 22.

PLANS SPIKED FOR OSCAR ON TODD'S GRAVE

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences has spiked plans to mark showman Mike Todd's Chicago grave with a 9-foot-high Oscar.

"The Oscar is protected by copyright," said a spokesman for the academy. "All who receive it sign a receipt they and their heirs will respect this copyright." He said it could not be used to mark a grave.

Todd's brother, David Goldbogen, had said in Chicago he was planning to erect a two-ton marble statue over the grave. Todd won an Academy Award Oscar for his movie "Around the World in 80 Days." He died in a plane crash last March 21.

Goldbogen was not available for comment on the academy's statement, but his wife said she did not believe her husband knew of the copyright.

TV Set Installed In Fairfax Pavilion

The television set purchased for Fairfax Pavilion with proceeds of a play given by young Fairfax thespians was installed last week, reported Recreation Director James Gallagher to the Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission Tuesday night.

The commission decided to recommend to the city council that lawn and shrubs be planted in Claus circle, reported Mrs. Marian Kelley, commission secretary.

In cowboy Westerns in movies and TV, horses are specially trained to fall without getting injured when they are supposed to be shot. The American Humane Assn. supervises all animal action under the motion picture code.

TV Columnist Wins Support For Silence

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—Marie Torre, who went to jail rather than reveal the source of an item in her radio-TV column, has received more than 500 letters praising her for her stand.

This was made known yesterday by the 34-year-old newspaperwoman's husband, TV producer Hal Friedman, who visited her at the Hudson County Jail here. Friedman said his wife had received only one letter critical of her position.

MISSES CHILDREN

She misses her two children, Friedman said, but is otherwise cheerful. Miss Torre shares with other prisoners the candy and fruit sent her by well-wishers.

Friedman was accompanied to the prison by Ogden Reid, former president and editor of the New York Herald Tribune, and several personal friends of the columnist. Miss Torre writes for the New York Herald Tribune syndicate.

MAKES CHOICE

She chose a 10-day jail term rather than reveal the source of an item she wrote about singer Judy Garland, saying she hoped the move "will lead to legislation protecting a newspaperman's sources."

Just such legislation was offered the House in Washington yesterday.

Rep. Francis E. Dorn (R-Ky.) introduced a bill exempting newspaper, radio and television reporters from being compelled by federal courts to reveal their sources, except in cases affecting national security.

EXTEND PRIVILEGE

Dorn said his bill would extend to the federal courts a recognition of newsmen's privilege already provided by law in 12 states.

He said the legislation would facilitate newsgathering and "give further legal recognition to the best journalistic ethics which provide for the protection of confidential news sources."

Support for legislation of this type came last night from the New York County Council of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Some 350 VFW members passed a resolution at a special meeting calling for laws to protect newsmen who find themselves in Miss Torre's position.

The resolution specifically named national security matters as an instance in which such exemption should not be granted newsmen.

Hair-Raiser

PHOENIX (AP)—The sheriff's office had a hair raising case. Someone broke into a television company's sound stage and stole $225 worth of props. The missing property: three Indian wigs.

2 Youngsters Star In Newest Sausalito Play

Sausalito Little Theater will open the 1959 spring season Jan. 30 with William Archibald's "The Innocents," to be presented on five consecutive Friday and Saturday nights.

Based on Henry James' novel "The Turn of the Screw," the play presents only four characters, of whom two are children. It is the story of a governess who arrives to care for the children and believes the children to be possessed of evil spirits.

The two children, played by Pippa White of Sausalito and Walter Beech of Tiburon, are "The Innocents" from whom the play takes its name. The governess is played by Maurine Herberged and the housekeeper by Nancy White.

Native Sons Seat Officers At Sausalito

Peter Strittmatter, the fifth in his family to head Sausalito's Sea Point Parlor 158, Native Sons of the Golden West, last night was installed as president of the lodge in joint ceremonies at Perry's Hall in which Mrs. Conrad Knudsen was installed as president of the Native Daughters.

Strittmatter's uncle, Walter, and his father, William, both deceased, and his older brothers, William and Russell, have preceded him in the top post.

He succeeds Louis Moraes. Mrs. Knudsen follows Mrs. Harry Bowers as president of the Native Daughters.

Other officers of the Native Sons installed include Donald R. Flash, Michael Minini, Sidney Smith, James Fields, Paul Jukich, Tom McKeon, Antony Maderios, Alexander Santos, William Strittmatter, Lee Pieraccini, Raymond Rodriques, Tony Simas and George Kurkland.

Additional officers of the Native Daughters installed were Mrs. Frank Faustine, Mrs. Fred Gustafson, Mrs. John Erklens, Mrs. Raymond Rodriques, Mrs. Mary B. Smith, Mrs. Lee Pieraccini, Mrs. John Pieraccini, Mrs. Fred Perry, Mrs. Sadie Oliver, Mrs. Helen Wetzler, Mrs. Marie Ashoff, Mrs. Leo Commins and Mrs. Walter Silva.

Installing officers were Frank Monte of Fairfax Parlor and Mrs. Henrietta Fabor of Marinita Parlor.

HABIT TURNS 'BANDITS' INTO CUSTOMERS

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Two youths drove up to a service station in suburban Renton and pulled a pistol on attendant Roy Wendt. "I haven't any money," Wendt said. "Okay," answered one would-be robber. "Fill up the tank, then. Wendt did: $3.35 worth. The robbers drove off—but not until they received their change for a $5 bill one of them handed Wendt.

Marin Can Import Water From River

Marin County apparently has a legal right to import Russian River water, North Marin Water District directors have been informed.

Jerome B. Gilbert, the district's chief engineer, reported the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District has been granted permission to control the wholesale distribution of the water from Coyote Dam on the basis of an application to the state water rights board which stipulates water must be used to meet needs of Marin County.

Board President Arnold E. Heise, Gilbert and District Manager A. T. McLaughlin agreed to meet next Monday night in Santa Rosa with the supervisors of Sonoma and Mendocino Counties and Marin Municipal Water District officials to discuss importing of Russian River water.

Redwood Gym Starts 'Slim-Trim' Courses

The Redwood High School Adult Recreation program will start tonight at the Redwood gym for men and women who want that extra exercise.

Robert Troppmann, recreation director, said basketball, badminton and volleyball games will be held from 7 to 9:30 p.m. each Thursday night until summer vacation. He said the charge will be 25 cents per person, which includes shower and towel. He said the women are eligible to take a "slim-trim course" under Miss Myrna Reed.

Philippine Nationals To Get Red Cross Aid

The American Red Cross has agreed to offer its services to Philippine nationals who were prisoners of war of Japan.

Compensation is available to those eligible under Article 16 of the treaty of peace with Japan. They may register on forms which are available from Marin chapter of the Red Cross at 712 Fifth avenue, San Rafael.

NAACP Aide To Discuss Desegregation Jan. 15

FRANKLIN H. WILLIAMS
ACLU speaker

Franklin H. Williams, secretary-counsel of the West Coast Region of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, will speak on "Desegregation—Moderate or Extreme" at the annual meeting of the Marin chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union, at 8:15 p.m. Jan. 15 in the Mill Valley Community Church.

Williams has lectured throughout the United States and Mexico on various aspects of the legal status of the Negro in America. While a member of the NAACP's legal staff, he participated in many cases in which questions of constitutional law were resolved by the federal courts.

Albert Bendich, ACLU lawyer, will speak on "1958 Civil Liberties Highlights in Northern California." Milen Dempster, Marin chapter chairman, will report on Marin ACLU activities.

Election of chapter board members will follow the public program. The nominating committee has proposed the following: James Chestnut, Milen Dempster, Abe Goodman, Robert Greensfelder, Gabriel Lehrer, Sali Lieberman, Robert Pitts, Gordon Robinson, Jerry Rubin, Carl Shapiro, Daniel Yanow, Dr. Richard Hahn, Dr. Sam Hanzel, Dr. Paul O'Rourke, and Mesdames Leon Ginsburg, Joseph Gutstadt, Henry Hemingway, Stephen Heller, Naomi Kirschner, and Rosaline Watkin.

Refreshments will follow the business session.

1st Building To Start On Red Hill Plot

Plans are completed for the first apartment building on the Red Hill 10 acres in Tiburon, according to William S. Johnstone of Alex Young Realty, agents for Mattei Development Co., owners of the property.

Sale of the acreage to the Mattei interests by Kenneth M. Abernathy was completed this week. Construction of the first building of 24 two-bedroom apartment units is scheduled to begin not later than March 1, Johnstone said.

Architect Stephen Heller has designed the apartment buildings.

"The apartments will have built-in equipment and a view of San Francisco Bay from individual decks," Johnstone said. "The building will have a heated swimming pool, elevator and garages, and is designed to retain the maximum number of oak trees on the property."

Rentals are expected to be from $175 per month, Johnstone added.

The complete project is planned to include 200 living units in 10 buildings, Johnstone explained.

Red Hill Sewer Link May Include School

Tiburon Sanitary District directors accepted a preliminary engineering report Monday night on the Red Hill sewer connection which will provide sanitary service to Mattei Development Co.'s proposed 10-acre apartment development.

Reed School may be included in the proposed extension of the sewer line to Rolling Hills, which will also include the proposed Heath development adjacent to Tiburon, said Robert A. Sterling, district secretary.

A petition by the Tiburon Fire Protection District for annexation to the sanitary district was approved.

An adjourned meeting will be held Jan. 19 with H. C. Knapp, staff member of the Bay Area Water Pollution Control Board, to discuss monitoring regulations for Southern Marin sanitary districts.

Boy Found In S.F.

A 13-year-old San Francisco boy, who vanished from his mother's car in San Rafael Monday, was found wandering the streets of San Francisco and taken to the Youth Guidance Center, San Francisco police reported Tuesday night.

The boy is John Boice Richens, son of Mrs. Muriel Whittaker Richens of 1517 Sixth avenue, San Francisco. Mrs. Richens said her son disappeared from her car while she shopped at a drug store on Fourth street in San Rafael. The boy had been upset over an argument with his mother.

County Given Sausalito Tax Collecting Job

Sausalito's assessing and tax collecting will be done by Marin County, starting with the 1960-61 fiscal year.

The Sausalito City Council approved the change by 4-1 vote Tuesday night.

The opposing vote was cast by Councilman George E. Keeney, who has consistently objected to the change, declaring, "The city will lose its personal service which has been rendered with great satisfaction in the past."

Even more strenuous opposition has come from City Clerk-Assessor Amelie Smith. She has challenged assertions by City Manager Donald A. Duerr that material savings will be made and has charged that the change will mean a reduction in city personnel.

Duerr had estimated savings up to $4,000 annually.

JOINS FIRM — Arthur McCready Jr. of 144 King street, Larkspur, has joined the San Francisco office of the insurance brokerage firm of Tinneman, Bridgeford and Rainey as head of the group department.

Long Beach was once a cattle range.
